Women and Property Rights in Indonesian Islamic Legal Contexts, 2018-11-01 In Women and Property Rights in Indonesian Islamic Contexts eight scholars of Indonesian Islam examine women's access to property in law courts and in village settings The authors draw on fieldwork from across the archipelago to analyse how judges and ordinary people apply interpretations of law religion and gender in deliberating and deciding in property disputes that arise at moments of marriage divorce and death The chapters go beyond the world of legal and scriptural texts to ask how women in fact fare in these contexts Women's capabilities and resources in Indonesia the world's largest Muslim society and one with distinctive traditions of legal and social life provides a critical knowledge base for advancing our understanding of the social life of Islamic law Contributors Nanda Amalia John R Bowen Tutik Hamidah Abidin Nurdin Euis Nurlaelawati Arskal Salim Rosmah Tami Atun Wardatun

Women and Social Change in North Africa Doris H. Gray, Nadia Sonneveld, 2018-01-11 A wide ranging analysis of grass roots activism migration legal political and religious changes as basis for social transformation

Women and Property Renee Hirschon, 2023-07-21 First published in 1984 Women and Property studies the idea of wealth and property in relation to women in diverse countries It attempts a definition of the term property itself and goes on to look at the relationships and rights associated with these various kinds of property The authors assess the effects of wider economic forces and State intervention indicating the changing contexts in which these systems are set today In some cases life cycle markers such as marriage divorce and widowhood are critical and in many cases it is the organisation of the household residential patterns and kinship rights which are seen to structure the relationships of women men and property Ideological constructs regarding female sexuality and also those in which women and children may be conceptualised as objects are considered in detail Surprisingly little attention has been paid to the significance of property as a critical factor affecting the position of women in society and the original papers presented here provide new dimensions for a neglected area of feminist debate This book will be of interest to students of sociology political science law and gender studies

Historical Dictionary of the Berbers (Imazighen) Hsain Ilahiane, 2017-03-27 Berbers also known as Imazighen are the ancient inhabitants of North Africa but rarely have they formed an actual kingdom or separate nation state Ranging anywhere between 15 50 million depending on how they are classified the Berbers have influenced the culture and religion of Roman North Africa and played key roles in the spread of Islam and its culture in North Africa Spain and Sub Saharan Africa Taken together these dynamics have over time converted to redefine the field of Berber identity and its socio political representations and symbols making it an even more important issue in the 21st century This

The Development of Islamic Law and Society in the Maghrib David S. Powers, 2022-02-13 The first eleven essays in this collection treat the application of Islamic law in qadi courts in the Maghrib in the period between 1100 and 1500 CE Based on preserved legal documents and the expert opinions of Muslim jurists Muftis the essays examine family law cases involving legal minority guardianship divorce inheritance bequests and endowments Cumulatively the cases bear witness to the effectiveness and efficiency of the Islamic judicial system in this period Contrary to popular perceptions the cases demonstrate that Muslim jurists placed a high value on reasoned thought and were sensitive to the manner in which law society and culture interacted with and shaped each other The final essay shows how the treatment of family endowments by colonial regimes in Algeria and India at the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th centuries shaped or misshaped the modern western scholarly understanding of Islamic law
