Journal of the West China Border Research Society, 1923 The Hong Kong Filmography, 1977-1997 John Charles, 2015-06-14 Thanks to the successes of directors and actors like John Woo Jackie Chan and Chow Yun Fat the cinema of Hong Kong is wildly popular worldwide and there is much more to this diverse film culture than most Western audiences realize Beyond martial arts and comedy Hong Kong films are a celebration of the grand diversity and pageantry of moviemaking covering action comedy horror eroticism mythology historical drama modern romances and experimental films Information on 1 100 films produced in British Hong Kong from 1977 to 1997 is included here Service List ... China. Hai guan zong shui wu si shu, 1883 Translingual Creative Writing Theory, Practice, and Pedagogy Jennifer Quist, 2025-05-15 In a challenge to monolingual Anglophone dominated creative writing workshops this book explores why and how students multilingual backgrounds and lack of fluency with the English language can emerge as assets rather than impediments to artistry and creativity Grounded in the Chinese tradition of Daoism as an ongoing discourse this exploration uses rigorous academic readings of the philosophical text the Zhuangzi as an analytical framework and takes a translingual approach to writing where translation and composition intersect inscribing one language upon another within a single text With concepts that resist expression such as inspiration uncertainty non knowing spontaneity unity forgetting the self and the perfection behind the imperfection of language Jennifer Quist demonstrates how Daoism s theories and metalanguage can re imagine creative writing education whilst de naturalizing the authority of English and Euro American literary traditions With analytical lenses derived from East Asia given context through translations of Chinese educators primary accounts of the history and theory of postsecondary creative writing education in 21st century China Quist develops a method for examining the practices of exemplary translingual writers from China Japan and their diasporas Featuring translingual writing prompts and practices for individual or classroom use by students at all levels of multilingualism Translingual Creative Writing Theory Practice and Pedagogy opens up the current workshop model and discloses the possibilities of linguistic transcendence for instructors and students With writing strategies based in cross cultural collaboration and balanced with de Anglicization of creative writing pedagogy this book calls to rework the structures methods and metaphors of the workshop and presents ideas for more collaborative collective equitable diverse and inclusive programs Service list. 9th-16th issue China inspectorate gen. of customs, 1883 Chinese Creative Writing Studies Rebecca Mo-Ling Leung, 2024-10-25 This book charts the development of creative writing bringing it from China to the world As the second volume of Chinese Creative Writing Studies the first of which introduces Chinese creative writing to English speaking readers this book expands on the first in further developing theories and research on creative writing pedagogy in the Chinese context and in Hong Kong particular looking at creative writing within cross media practices and the implications for creative writing in global contexts The volume does so by presenting both local and international voices to expand the horizon of Chinese creative writing development Structured in four parts the book begins with leading Chinese scholars reflections on research and field The second part focuses on the interlinkages between creative writing and pedagogy in Hong Kong The third section discusses poetic thinking and therapeutic writing to highlight their relationship with the personal and community Lastly the book takes a global perspective to examine the pedagogy and practice of creative writing through interviews with leaders in the field It is relevant to researchers teachers and students interested in creative writing particularly Chinese creative writing but also those working in comparative contexts both culturally and in terms of cross media perspectives

Writing Women Saints in Anglo-Saxon England Paul E. Szarmach, 2013-01-01 The twelve essays in this collection advance the contemporary study of the women saints of Anglo Saxon England by challenging received wisdom and offering alternative methodologies The work embraces a number of different scholarly approaches from codicological study to feminist theory While some contributions are dedicated to the description and reconstruction of female lives of saints and their cults others explore the broader ideological and cultural investments of the literature The volume concentrates on four major areas the female saint in the Old English Martyrology genre including hagiography and homelitic writing motherhood and chastity and differing perspectives on lives of virgin martyrs The essays reveal how saints lives that exist on the apparent margins of orthodoxy actually demonstrate a successful literary challenge extending the idea of a holy life

Writing Women in Korea Theresa Hyun, 2003-09-30 Writing Women in Korea explores the connections among translation new forms of writing and new representations of women in Korea from the early 1900s to the late 1930s It examines shifts in the way translators handled material pertaining to women the work of women translators of the time and the relationship between translation and the original works of early twentieth century Korean women writers The book opens with an outline of the Chos n period 1392 1910 when a vernacular writing system was invented making it possible to translate texts into Korean in particular Chinese writings reinforcing official ideals of feminine behavior aimed at women The legends of European heroines and foreign literary works such as those by Ibsen translated at the beginning of the twentieth century helped spur the creation of the New Woman Sin Y s ng ideal for educated women of the 1920s and 1930s The role of women translators is explored as well as the scope of their work and the constraints they faced as translators Finally the author relates the writing of Kim My ng Sun Pak Hwa S ng and Mo Yun Suk to new trends imported into Korea through translation She argues that these women deserve recognition for not only their creation of new forms of writing but also their contributions to Korea s emerging sense of herself as a modern and independent nation

Education between Speech and Writing Ruyu Hung, 2017-11-06 This unique book explores how graphocentrism affects Chinese education and culture It moves away from the contemporary educational practices in China of following the Western model of phonocentrism to demonstrate that each perspective interacts and counteracts with each other creating a dialogue between Eastern and Western thought Chapters explore the consonances and dissonances between the two problematizing the educational practices of Chinese tradition and proposing a dialectical thinking of post graphocentrism based on the concepts of Dao and deconstruction The volume creates a unique area in the field of philosophy of education by questioning the writing speaking relationship in Chinese tradition complete with educational ideas and practices that consider the uniqueness of Chinese character writing A pioneering study of its kind Education between Speech and Writing provides a valuable source for students of philosophy of education as well as students and academics in the field of Chinese Studies The book will also appeal to anyone interested in dialogues between Chinese and Western thoughts especially negotiating between Daoism and deconstruction Journal of the North-China Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society for the Year ,1924
