Theologies Of Creation Creatio Ex Nihilo And Its New Rivals:

Theologies of Creation Thomas Jay Oord, 2014-10-02 Humans have long wondered about the origin of the universe And such questions are especially alive today as physicists offer metaphysical theories to account for the emergence of creation Theists have attributed the universe s origin to divine activity and many have said God created something from absolute nothingness The venerable doctrine of creatio ex nihilo especially emphasizes God s initial creating activity Some contributors to this book explore new reasons creatio ex nihilo should continue to be embraced today But other contributors question the viability of creation from nothing and offer alternative initial creation options in its place These new alternatives explore a variety of options in light of recent scientific work new biblical scholarship and both new and old theological traditions

T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation , 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation

The Uncontrolling Love of God Thomas Jay Oord, 2015-11-09 Rarely does a new theological position emerge to account well for life in the world including not only goodness and beauty but also tragedy and randomness Drawing from Scripture science philosophy and various theological traditions Thomas Jay Oord offers a novel theology of providence essential kenosis that emphasizes God s inherently noncoercive love in relation to creation

Debating Transcendence Bin Song, 2025-11-04 A bold and rigorous reexamination of transcendence uniting religion theology philosophy and science while bridging Confucian and Christian thought to explore the origins of the world and human destiny Debating Transcendence is a groundbreaking contribution to the ongoing dialogue between Confucian and Christian thought by addressing the transcendence debate a key controversy that has shaped centuries of cross cultural intellectual exchange Song examines whether the Confucian concept of Tian Heaven or Taiji Ultimate Limit possesses a transcendent dimension comparable to Christian understandings of the Creator God This study revisits the historical and philosophical roots of the debate tracing its evolution from early interactions between Confucianism and Christianity during the sixteenth century to present day discussions At the heart of this book is Song's aim to construct a Confucian definition of theology and a Confucian approach to comparative theology Grounded in a scientifically rigorous methodology that transcends the conceptual boundaries of philosophy religion and theology this new approach balances rootedness and impartiality minimizing biases and revealing shared ground Covering essential thinkers from the West and the East such as Plato Augustine Descartes and Paul Tillich alongside Confucius Laozi Wang Bi and Zhu Xi Song explores the historical development of key concepts such as creatio ex nihilo creation out of nothing and sheng birth birth challenging misconceptions and highlighting underexplored commonalities and differences Drawing from his diverse scholarly background and extensive engagement with both traditions Song distinguishes Confucian from Daoist metaphysics and demonstrates that Confucian metaphysics centered around the concept of generatio ex nihilo offers a compelling framework for understanding transcendence that not only resembles but in certain aspects surpasses major streams of its Christian counterpart Readers seeking to understand the profound spiritual foundations underpinning interactions between China and the West will find Song's work essential Combining rigor scope and depth Debating Transcendence paves the way for refreshed interactions between Confucian and Christian thought offering insights vital to contemporary scholarship and interreligious exchange

Catholic and Mormon Stephen H. Webb, Alonzo L. Gaskill, 2015-07-31 In this unique and spirited dialogue two theologians one a convert to Mormonism and the other a convert to Catholicism address some of the most significant issues that impact Christian identity including such central doctrines as authority grace Jesus Mary and revelation demonstrating that these traditions are much closer to each other than many assume

The Case Against Theism Raphael Lataster, 2018-06-14 This monograph offers a critique of arguments for the existence of a specifically Christian God advanced by prominent scholar William Lane Craig The discussion incorporates philosophical mathematical scientific historical and sociological approaches The author does not seek to criticize religion in general or Christianity specifically Rather he examines the modern and relatively sophisticated evidential case for Christian theism Scholars have been arguing for theism or naturalism for centuries and there seems little to add to the discussion especially from the theistic side However to assume that either theism or naturalism obtains is a false dichotomy There are alternatives to both that merit consideration Employing a probabilistic approach the author advances this discussion His work uniquely utilizes not only naturalistic hypotheses to argue against theism It also presents supernaturalistic hypotheses This leaves no question that theism is almost certainly false even if some form of divine reality exists This project seeks not to argue that Christianity or any other faith or religion is undesirable but only to critically examine evidentialist claims posited by Christianity's learned apologists In fact a major secondary aim is to consider alternative god conceptions such as polytheism and pantheism This work aims to highlight that Christian theism is often granted special privileges by theistic philosophers of religion which seems doubly inappropriate when certain alternative god conceptions may even prove to be more plausible Herbert McCabe Franco Manni, 2020-05-25 Herbert McCabe struck those who met him Alasdair MacIntyre Anthony Kenny Terry Eagleton Denys Turner or those who read his writings David Burrell Stanley Hauerwas for his high intelligence He was the most intelligent philosopher after the death of Karl Popper His philosophical inquiries on God and the Human Being have yet to be properly understood not because they were abstruse clarity was McCabe's inexorable sword but because of their dizzying depth for which many are not yet prepared This is the first comprehensive study of McCabe a person who preferred speaking to writing and left only the short fragmented and dispersed texts of his lectures and sermons But in this book to use David Burrell's words Manni has managed to get inside McCabe's mind and assemble together for the first time the disiecta membra of a powerful system of thought Creation: A Guide for the Perplexed Simon Oliver, 2017-06-29 This addition to our popular Guides for the Perplexed series tackles a subject that is enjoying renewed debate Christianity along with Judaism and Islam claims that the universe is not a brute fact It is created But what do we mean by creation Do we mean that the universe is designed Is it the product of an evolutionary process How are creatures related to God and does God act within creation Simon Oliver begins with the background to the Christian theology of creation in Greek philosophy and the Old Testament This provides a route into understanding the claim that we are part of a created order that is also the theatre of God's providential action He examines different understandings of creation including creation out of nothing and the analogy of being with close reference to the work of patristic and medieval theologians such as Augustine and Thomas Aquinas This leads to an historical overview of the relationship between theological philosophical and scientific approaches to creation in the modern period Some of the ethical issues concerning humanity's place within and treatment of creation and our environment are also examined A distinctive yet traditional theology of creation is proposed focused on the concepts of gift and participation as ways of understanding more fully the meaning and implications of the claim that the universe is created
