There A Petal Silently Falls Three Stories By Choe Yun:

There a Petal Silently Falls Yun Ch'oe, 2008 At once experimental polyvocal and politically engaged the stories collected in There a Petal Silently Falls offer a rich evocative exploration of violence trauma and loss in divided Korea Ch oe s stories take us well beyond previous literary representations of national division and the 1980 Kwangju Massacre by probing the relationship among desire fantasy and memory all the while locating gender at the center of the making of history The Curious Tale of Mandogi's Ghost Sekihan Kin, 2010 The Curious Tale of Mandogi s Ghost incorporates Korean folk tales ghost stories and myth into a phenomenal depiction of epic tragedy Written by a zainichi a permanent resident of Japan who is not of Japanese ancestry the novel tells the story of Mandogi a young priest living on the island of Cheju do Mandogi becomes unwittingly involved in the Four Three Incident of 1948 in which the South Korean government brutally suppressed an armed peasant uprising and purged Cheju do of communist sympathizers Although Mandogi is sentenced to death for his part in the riot he survives in a sense to take revenge on his enemies and fully commit himself to the resistance Mandogi s indeterminate shapeshifting character is emblematic of Japanese colonialism s outsized impact on both ruler and ruled A central work of postwar Japanese fiction The Curious Tale of Mandogi s Ghost relates the trauma of a long forgotten history and its indelible imprint on Japanese and Korean memory

The Red Room , 2009-08-15 Modern Korean fiction is to a large extent a literature of witness to the historic upheavals of twentieth century Korea Often inspired by their own experiences contemporary writers continue to show us how individual Koreans have been traumatized by wartime violence whether the uprooting of whole families from the ancestral home life on the road as war refugees or the violent deaths of loved ones The Red Room brings together stories by three canonical Korean writers who examine trauma as a simple fact of life In Pak Wan so s In the Realm of the Buddha trauma manifests itself as an undigested lump inside the narrator a mass needing to be purged before it consumes her The protagonist of O Chong hui s Spirit on the Wind suffers from an incomprehensible wanderlust the result of trauma that has escaped her conscious memory In the title story by Im Ch or u trauma is recycled from torturer to victim when a teacher is arbitrarily detained by unnamed officials Western readers may find these stories bleak even chilling yet they offer restorative truths when viewed in light of the suffering experienced by all victims of war and political violence regardless of place and time The Reincarnated Giant Mingwei Song, Theodore Hutters, 2018-09-04 A new wave of Chinese science fiction is here This golden age has not only resurrected the genre but also subverted its own conventions Going beyond political utopianism and technological optimism contemporary Chinese writers conjure glittering visions and subversive experiments ranging from space opera to cyberpunk utopianism to the posthuman and parodies of China s rise to deconstructions of the myth of national development This anthology showcases the best of contemporary science fiction from Taiwan Hong Kong and the People s Republic of China In fifteen short stories and novel excerpts The Reincarnated Giant opens a doorway into imaginary realms alongside our own world and the history of the future Authors
