The Eastern Mediterranean in Transition Spyridon N. Litsas, Aristotle Tziampiris, 2016-03-09 The wider region of the Eastern Mediterranean is in transition What is being evinced is a situation of continuous volatility centering on developments such as the Arab Spring the Greek sovereign debt crisis Islamic terrorism the continuation of deadlock over the Cypriot and Palestinian Issues significant energy finds in the Levantine Basin concerns over nuclear proliferation and more recently the Syrian Civil War At a systemic level the move towards a regional multipolar reality has also contributed to volatility by creating a crescendo of antagonisms between all the major international actors who continuously strive for more influence power and prestige This collective project by leading experts represents a unique combination of International Theory and International Politics analysis that deals exclusively with the wider Eastern Mediterranean It scrutinizes in a multidimensional manner the current geostrategic and geopolitical conditions that include the latest domestic socio political events as well as the active involvement of the Great Powers in the region This book should be of interest to academics decision makers and a general reading public focusing on a significant and influential region in flux

The Writers Directory ,2013 Strategic Studies Quarterly ,2008 Recent Themes in Military History Donald A. Yerxa, 2008 This book offers an inviting survey of recent developments in military studies from leading voices in the field Deemed the New York Review of Books for history Historically Speaking has emerged as one of the most unusual historical publications in recent years actively seeking out contributions from a pantheon of leading voices in historical discourse from both inside and outside academia Recent Themes in Military History represents some of the best writing on military history to appear in Historically Speaking in the past five years Using multiple formats forums interviews and individual essays this collection provides contrasting views on such topics in military history as the existence and function of military revolutions in the past and present the experience of soldiering and combat the particularly violent and gruesome nature of twentieth century warfare and projections of nature of future wars The ebb and flow of discourse between contributors also illustrates how the study of history is an ongoing conversation wherein discovery and debate lead to deeper understanding and development of
