The War against Animals Dinesh Wadiwel, 2015-06-24 Are non human animals our friends or enemies In this provocative book Dinesh Wadiwel argues that our mainstay relationships with billions of animals are essentially hostile The War against Animals asks us to interrogate this sustained violence across its intersubjective institutional and epistemic dimensions Drawing from Foucault Spivak and Derrida The War against Animals argues that our sovereign claim of superiority over other animals is founded on nothing else but violence Through innovative readings of Locke and Marx Dinesh Wadiwel argues that property in animals represents a bio political conquest that aims to secure animals as the spoils of war The goal for pro animal advocacy must be to challenge this violent sovereignty and recognize animal resistance through forms of counter conduct and truce

Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O'Key, 2022-01-13 We are living through a period of planetary crisis a time in which the mass production and consumption of some animals is made possible by the mass extinction of many others What is the role of literature in responding to this war against animals How might literary criticism read for animals In Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O Key develops the bold argument that deep attention to literary form enables us to rethink human animal relations Through chapters on W G Sebald J M Coetzee and Mahasweta Devi as well as close readings of works by Arundhati Roy and Richard Powers O Key reveals how literary forms can unsettle the fictions of human supremacy and craft alternative creaturely forms of relation An intervention into both the humanism of literary theory and the representational focus of animal studies this provocative work makes the case for a new formalism in light of our obligation to fellow creatures

The War Against Nonhuman Animals Stacy Banwell, 2023-05-09 We are currently engaged in an existential species war against nonhuman animals This book argues that during this war nonhuman animals should be granted legal personhood and treated as protected persons rather than the property of protected persons The main argument is that War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity rape forced pregnancy and other acts of sexual violence are being committed within the meat egg and dairy industries Avoiding dreaded comparisons the book explores shared sources of oppression between human and nonhuman animals who are subject to the expressions and consequences of reproductive violence It asks what drives and facilitates the war against nonhuman animals And what are the global consequences of this war Throughout it demonstrates how racism sexism and speciesism informs both intrahuman violence and the violence s of the animal industrial complex Ultimately the book asks us to reconsider what it means to be human

Esthetic Experiments Marek Wojtaszek, 2014-08-26 Contemporary American landscape is wrought with ongoing processes and phenomena of technicization observable at the intersections of multiple layers of society This book brings to attention their cultural and political aspects emphasizing timeliness and necessity of academic intervention into and evaluation of their specificity and ramifications Presenting critical and analytical account of cultural narratives which define speak of and use diverse technologies of writing sound media representations surveillance war the texts compiled in this volume investigate the coalescence between technological production on the one hand and the textual on the other The idea of the book responds to the current academic appeal inspired by postmodern questioning of the foundations and realized most importantly by deconstruction to dismantle one of the constitutive pillars of Western civilization namely between techne and episteme In their interpretative mode the texts proceed largely experimentally bridging the gap between techne and episteme In doing so they endeavor to reformulate and complexify an experience of American culture The book aims to clarify and exemplify that the junction of text and technology implies that meanings are embedded in a material Consequently the publication introduces and popularizes the assumption that American cultural experience emerges as a genuine experiment of an esthetic nature

Fiction and Truth in Transition Oscar Hemer, 2012
What can fiction tell us about the world that journalism and science cannot This simple yet vast question is the starting point for an interrogation of the relationship between literary fiction and society's dramatic transformation in South Africa and Argentina over the past several decades The resulting discursive text borders on both journalism and literature incorporating reportage essay and memoir Series Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Vol 34

Animals in Literary Education John Drew, 2025-09-24
This book examines the complicated place of animals in literary analysis and education and shows how an ethically engaged approach to animals representation could be pursued to challenge anthropocentrism and cultivate multispecies empathy Other species are represented in the literary education canon including farmed animals Yet the animals are typically anthropomorphized to guide students toward humanist readings and away from consideration of animals experiences or subjectivities This reproduces the idea that animals are mere objects meant to be exploited for human purposes even metaphorical and educational ones John Drew develops the term anthro allegory to capture and critique the process through which students are taught to read animal literary representations exclusively as symbolic analogues for humans and human themes The concept serves as an analytical lens for critically interrogating significant texts taught across educational levels and exposing the deeply engrained educational anthropocentrism that silences animal issues even when animals are represented Crucially Drew identifies texts and pedagogical strategies that can help cultivate a literary educational animal ethic that simultaneously encourages analytical rigour and multispecies concern
