Otterbein, 2020-12-22 Originally published in 1994 the late Keith F Otterbein's scholarship had followed an overall design since 1962 when he began conducting comparative studies of warfare using both ethnographic and cross cultural methods Through a conceptual framework derived from systems theory he made signal contributions to our understanding of the role of warfare in human social evolution He formulated a Fraternal Interest Group theory utilizing it to explain not only feuding and warfare but also rape and capital punishment Believing that armed combat is learned behaviour he posed questions about its learning process that had yet to be answered He acted as a major synthesizer of the growing literature on warfare and led attempts among anthropologists to apply their knowledge of war and peace to current events This volume will serve both as a useful introduction to the anthropology of war and as a needed compendium of Professor Otterbein's ideas Roots of War and Terror Anthony Stevens, 2005-03-15 In The Roots of War and Terror Anthony Stevens provides profound insights into the nature and origins of armed conflict Combining the concepts of the archetype and the collective unconscious Jungian with crucial evidence from the behavioural and biological sciences Stevens exposes war as an ancient propensity rooted in human psychology particularly in the psychology and anatomy of the human male Stevens explains what attracts men to the profession of arms and describes the age old techniques still used in military training camps which are necessary to activate the warrior archetype in the masculine psyche The author sheds light on how leaders persuade populations to go to war and lays bare the unconscious fantasies that could draw us all to final Armageddon In later chapters in his book Stevens discusses ways of inhibiting the archetypes of war through educational policy and admission of women into the citadels of masculine power of diverting them into less destructive channels The Roots of War and Terror is an indispensable work for anyone wishing to understand the psychological basis of war or hoping to discover ways in which the unimaginable catastrophe of nuclear war could be avoided Denial and dissociation repression and projection enable us to remain cheerfully unconscious Disguised as defenders of our egos and protectors of our peace of mind those discreet flunkies are really secret agents in the service of the archetypes of war Unknown and unrecognised by our fellow citizens they are the stooges of Armageddon War Air University (U.S.),1969
