ABSTRACT: Wazir Agha was known as a critic but first of all, he is a poet. He started his literary career as a poet. Wazir Agha's poem presents a rich picture of human psychology. Man has been in search of the mystery of existence since eternity. Wazir Agha presented such excellent symbols in his poetry that these symbols and metaphors become an effort of mere suffering, oppression, unconscious, or mere optimism and sovereignty beyond the conscious and the subconscious. Wazir Agha is not only an authentic reference to human psychology but also to modern psychological theories. He not only describes his sexual experience but also the effects of childhood on human life, repression of emotions in youth, fear of death in middle age and the revelation in old age also describes the caste very well.
