Reviewing texts as varied as love lyric love stories marriage debates rhetorical contests and liturgical and moralistic pieces Tova Rosen considers the positions and positioning of female figures and female voices within Jewish male discourse The idolization and demonization of women present in these texts is read here against the background of scripture and rabbinic literature as well as the traditions of chivalry and misogyny in the hosting Islamic and Christian cultures Unveiling Eve unravels the literary evidence of a patriarchal tradition in which women are routinely rendered nonentities often positioned as abstractions without bodies or reified as bodies without subjectivities Without rigidly following any one school of feminist thinking Rosen creatively employs a variety of methodologies to describe and assess the texts presentation of male sexual politics and delineate how women and concepts of gender were manipulated fictionalized fantasized and poeticized Inaugurating a new era of critical thinking in Hebrew literature Unveiling Eve penetrates a field of medieval literary scholarship that has until now proven impervious to feminist criticism
