Witnessing Prophecy Politics And Wisdom:

Witnessing Maria Clara Bingemer, Peter Casarella, 2014-10 Inspired by the twenty fifth anniversary of the Jesuit martyrs of El Salvador this volume gathers reflection on the meaning and role of Christian witness in the world today The meaning of witness has always carried special weight in the examples of martyrs But as the contributors both from North and South America here demonstrate the implications of witness extend in many ways to pedagogy the role of narrative in theology spirituality intercultural dialogue and politics

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ's disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally

Facing the World John K. Downey, Steve Ostovich, Johann M. Vento, 2018 This collection of essays on political theology including one by its inspiration Johann Baptist Metz accepts the challenge of how to live mercifully in difficult times The authors respond to the call of Pope Francis to respond with mercy compassion and solidarity to a global culture of indifference

Christianity and the Laws of Conscience Jeffrey B. Hammond, Helen M. Alvare, 2021-06-24 This book explores the Christian theological legal constitutional historical and philosophical meanings of conscience for both scholarly and educated general audiences

Beyond Dogmatism and Innocence Bradford E. Hinze, Anthony J. Godzieba, 2017-02-01 Behind every important development in Catholic doctrine and practice since the beginning of the modern period have been debates about the interpretation of Christianity's classic texts and traditions and their ideological and practical implications Over the past century there have been breakthroughs in retrieving the origins of beliefs and practices recovering the rich myriad and multifaceted literary forms and recognizing the ways these venerable traditions have been received applied and negotiated in the lives of reading audiences with their contrasting worldviews The essays in this volume by leading figures in Catholic theology suggest what might be called a third way that blends deeply contextual interpretations with a critical theological analysis of the roles of power and grace in church and society The abilities and skills to grapple with basic issues in hermeneutics and critical theory remain necessary and fundamental for Catholic theology At stake is nothing less than how the good news of God's salvation can be grasped and lived today This volume provides a trustworthy map and compass for negotiating these debates and options Contributors include Sandra M Schneiders Francis Sch ssler Fiorenza Robert J Schreiter John E Thiel Dominic Doyle Fernando F Segovia Andrew Prevot Ormond Rush Judith Gruber Susan Abraham Anthony J Godzieba and Bradford E Hinze

The Structures of Virtue and Vice Daniel J. Daly, 2021-02-01 Daly uses the lens of virtue and vice to reimagine a Catholic ethics that can better scrutinize the social forces that both affect our moral character and contribute to human well being or human suffering creating a framework to respond virtuously to problems caused by global social systems from poverty to climate change

Theology of the People Scannone, Juan Carlos, SJ, 2021 Theology of the People presents and studies the influence of liberation theology on Jorge Mario Bergoglio Scannone s former teacher who lived with him for many years and who is cited in Pope Francis s first encyclical Laudato S

Beyond Suffering and Reparation Timothy James Bowyer, 2018-11-01 This book presents the key issues debates concepts approaches and questions that together define the lives of rural people living in extreme poverty in the aftermath of political violence in a developing country context Divided into nine chapters the book addresses issues such as the complexities of human suffering losing trust psychic wounds dealing with post traumatic stress situations and disillusionment after change By building knowledge about human and social suffering in a post conflict environment the book counters the objectification of human and social suffering and the moral detachment with which it is associated In addition it presents practical ways to help make things better It discusses new methodological concepts based around empathy and participation to show how the subjective reality of human and social suffering matter Finally the book maps a burgeoning field of enquiry based around the need for linking psychosocial approaches with the actual lived experience of individuals and groups

Von Balthasar & the Option for the Poor Todd Walatka, 2017 Hans Urs von Balthasar s vast corpus of theological philosophical literary and pastoral writings remains one of the most impressive achievements in 20th century thought In light of liberation theology and now the papacy of Francis however a theological affirmation of the option for the poor remains dangerously weak in Balthasar s corpus Von Balthasar and the Option for the Poor offers a sympathetic reforming of Balthasar s account of the drama of salvation what he calls theodramatics in response to this weakness

Put Away Your Sword Michael L. Budde, 2024-03-11 What does it mean to follow the Prince of Peace in a world plagued by war violence and killing Can the foundational convictions of Christianity and the experiences of Christians around the world contribute to a more adequate practice of the faith in contemporary times on matters of war violence and peacemaking This volume addresses these important questions with contributions from Christian scholars and practitioners from across the Majority World including El Salvador Brazil Kenya and the Philippines and from the United States and Europe They include proponents of Christian pacifism and just war theory advocates for varieties of just peacemaking frameworks and people pursuing slow modest steps toward reconciling enemies without the use of overarching theoretical frameworks What holds them together is a sense that the world and the church would benefit from a robust and gospel based commitment to nonviolence as an alternative to lethal business as usual in addressing conflicts great and small The topics they consider include constructive aspects of a Christian theology of nonviolence case studies of gospel nonviolence and pastoral work from violent conflicts around the world women as victims of violence and makers of peace and theopolitical questions of just war armed intervention and Christian nonviolence
