Women And Militant Wars The Politics Of Injury War Politics And Experience:

Women and Militant Wars Swati Parashar, 2014 This book explores women's activities in militant insurgencies and seeks to understand what women do in wars and how that challenges or endorses gender norms

Women and Militant Wars Swati Parashar, 2014-03-05 This book explores women's militant activities in insurgent wars and seeks to understand what women do in wars In International Relations inter state conflict anti state armed insurgency and armed militancy are essentially seen as wars where collective violence against civilians and security forces is used to achieve political objectives Extending the notion of war as politics of injury to the armed militancy in Indian administered Kashmir and the Tamil armed insurgency in Sri Lanka this book explores how women participate in militant wars and how that politics not only shapes the gendered understandings of women's identities and bodies but is in turn shaped by them The case studies discussed in the book offer new comparative insight into two different and most prevalent forms of insurgent wars today religio political and ethno nationalist Empirical analyses of women's roles in the Sri Lankan Tamil militant group the LTTE and the logistical ideological support women provide to militant groups active in Indian administered Kashmir suggest that these insurgent wars have their own gender dynamics in recruitment and operational strategies Thus Women and Militant Wars provides an excellent insight into the gender politics of these insurgencies and women's roles and experiences within them This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of critical war and security studies feminist international relations gender studies terrorism and political violence South Asia studies and IR in general

Fictional International Relations Sungju Park-Kang, 2014-06-05 This book proposes the idea of fictional International Relations IR and engages with feminist IR by contextualising the case of a woman spy in Korea in the Cold War Fictional imagination and feminist IR encourage one to go beyond conventional or standard ways of thinking it reshapes taken for granted interpretations and assumptions This takes the view that a dominant narrative of events might be reconstructed as a different kind of story once events are placed within a wider temporal approach The case of the woman Korean secret agent who reportedly bombed a South Korean plane Korean Airlines KAL Flight 858 under the instruction from the North Korean leadership to disrupt the Seoul Olympic Games is chosen to serve as an effective example of fictional IR and feminist IR scholarship which can be investigated through the research puzzles concerning gender pain and truth Fictional International Relations has three main objectives First it investigates the way in which fiction writing can become a method for dealing with data problems and contingency in IR Second the book examines how gender pain and truth operate or interact in the case of the Korean spy and how this observation can strengthen feminist IR in terms of intersectionality Finally the author goes on to explore why this case has been so difficult to study openly and thoroughly The aim of the book is not to refute the official findings the point is to unpack complex dynamics surrounding truth more specifically how the official account has been executed as the truth based on a feminist informed investigation This book will be of interest to students of IR theory critical security studies Cold War studies gender studies and Asian studies Mapping Feminist International Relations in South Asia Shweta Singh, Amena Mohsin, 2024-12-30 This book provides a comprehensive overview of feminist international relations in South Asia. It highlights the key contentions, debates and tensions in the field and studies how the trajectory of feminist international relations in the region has been marked by dialogue, dissidence and difference with the Global North. In doing so, the volume draws attention to different feminist histories, herstories and differing ways of knowing, seeing and doing global politics. It particularly foregrounds a feminist intersectional postcolonial lens to a diverse range of issues such as women, peace and the security agenda, populism and nationalism, militarism and militarisation and underlines the rich, textured contours of feminist epistemologies in South Asia. An important contribution, the book will be of great interest to scholars, teachers and students of feminism, international relations, postcolonialism, women's studies, gender studies, security studies and South Asian studies.

The Emerald International Handbook of Feminist Perspectives on Women's Acts of Violence Stacy Banwell, Lynsey Black, Dawn K. Cecil, Yanyi K. Djamba, Sitawa R. Kimuna, Emma Milne, Lizzie Seal, Eric Y. Tenkorang, 2023-08-02 Grounded in feminist scholarship, this book upends normative accounts of femme fatale violence to focus beyond the misogyny and the sensationalism and unearth the motivation behind women's roles in homicide, terrorism, combat and even nationalist movements.

Women and the Lebanese Civil War Jennifer Philippa Eggert, 2021-11-09 This book analyses the reasons for women's participation in the various Lebanese and Palestinian militias involved in the Lebanese Civil War, 1975-1990. Whilst most existing accounts of the Civil War in Lebanon either overlook the roles and experiences of women entirely or focus on women as victims or peacemakers only, Women and the Lebanese Civil War highlights that women were involved as militants and often also as fighters in all of the militias partaking in the war. Analysing individual motivations, organisational characteristics, security-related aspects and societal factors, the book explains why women were included as fighters in some of the militias but not in others. Based on extensive fieldwork in Lebanon, the book is the first comprehensive study of female perpetrators and supporters of political violence during the Lebanese Civil War. Beyond the case of Lebanon, it questions widespread assumptions about the roles of women at times of violent conflict and war.

Emotions, Politics and War Linda Åhäll, Thomas Gregory, 2015-07-03 A growing number of scholars have sought to re-centre emotions in our study of international politics, however, an overarching book on how emotions matter to the study of politics and war is yet to be published. This volume is aimed at filling that gap, proceeding from the assumption that a nuanced understanding of emotions can only enhance our engagement with contemporary conflict and war. Providing a range of perspectives from a diversity of methodological approaches on the conditions, maintenance and interpretation of emotions, the contributors interrogate the multiple ways in which emotions function and matter to the study of global politics. Accordingly, the innovative contribution of this volume is its specific engagement with the role of emotions and constitution of emotional subjects in a range of different contexts of politics and war, including the gendered nature of war and security, war traumas, post-conflict reconstruction and counterinsurgency operations Looking at how we analyse emotions in war why it matters and what emotions do in global politics this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of critical security studies and international relations alike

Trauma and Memory Studies: Responses from India and Beyond Simi Malhotra, Sheikh Sana Assad, Farhana Tasnim, Somya Charan Pahadi, Sango Bidani, 2025-09-20 This edited volume offers a comprehensive reevaluation of Trauma and Memory Studies foregrounding perspectives from India and beyond It critically interrogates the prevailing Euro centric paradigm within the field advocating for the amplification and contextualization of voices originating from South Asian spatial and temporal contexts Departing from conventional West North centric narratives the text prioritizes the narratives of historically marginalized survivor groups encompassing individuals affected by pivotal events such as the 26 11 terror attacks in Mumbai the Bengal famine the dispersion of the Indian diaspora and the experiences of incarcerated populations in Iran Kenya Palestine etc Through an in depth exploration of societal mechanisms for remembrance and coping strategies vis vis traumatic episodes such as the Jallianwala Bagh massacre the book unveils the intricate interplay of political cultural and social dynamics It explores the complicated dynamics of post colonial and post conflict societies in India by using a range of interdisciplinary methodologies such as examining artistic expressions oral histories and digital media It discusses the ongoing debate between hegemonic historical narratives and the often marginalized voices of subaltern communities This book serves as an indispensable resource for academics students and researchers committed to the exploration of trauma and memory within non Western contexts

Gender Politics and Security Discourse Laura McLeod, 2015-07-16 This book investigates competing modes of thought about gender security and aims to understand the policy implications of personal political imaginations The work draws upon extensive research conducted by the author in Serbia to develop a comprehensive picture of how feminist and women s organising relates to the broader national and international contexts surrounding gender security Through an innovative analytical framework of personal political imaginations the book explores the role that memories perceptions and hopes about conflict and post conflict have upon the logics of gender security It investigates how contrasting and competing modes of thought about gender security are made paying attention to how the dynamics of gender politics in Serbia shape the security discourse and narratives of activists The volume explores in detail how feminist and women s organisations have responded to UNSCR 1325 by analysing two policy debates and campaigns that seek to achieve its goals and gender security in Serbia 1 feminist antimilitarism and 2 connecting domestic violence to the abuse of small arms and light weapons Ultimately the book argues that the configuration of gender security discourse is intimately linked to personal political imaginations of conflict and post conflict This book will be of much interest to students of gender politics conflict studies critical security studies European politics and IR in general

The Production of Gendered Knowledge of War Annika Björkdahl, Johanna Mannergren, 2025-04-02 This edited volume critically investigates women s knowledge about war and explores the epistemic agency of women in a range of contemporary settings across the globe Women are deeply affected by war participate in war and resist war At the same time knowledge production often ignores and marginalizes women s experiences and gendered ways of knowing war From Colombia to Israel and Palestine Liberia Mali Myanmar Nepal North America Northern Iraq and Ukraine the chapters in this book illuminate gendered knowledge production in and about different conflict affected sites By taking the embodied and narrative epistemic agency of local knowers seriously new insights are thereby presented about the role women play in producing knowledge about war This book proposes new theoretical vantage points in order to understand how epistemic power and epistemic violence are closely related Bringing the topic of knowledge production into the so called Women Peace and Security WPS agenda it analyses how knowledge of the gendered nature of war and security is produced and circulated and argues that the WPS agenda is a system of knowledge with its own omissions and silences By theorizing gendered knowledge production and amplifying the voices of women as epistemic agents this book advances scholarship on gender and war This book will be of much interest to students of feminist studies peace studies war and conflict studies and International Relations The Introduction Chapter 3 and Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Chapter 6 and Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
