Anne Frobisher, Len

Year 5 Qca Tests Teachers Guide:

Low Attainers in Primary Mathematics Jenny Houssart, 2013-04-15 In this fascinating book Jenny Houssart draws on close observations with children in lower mathematics sets in primary schools to investigate why some children opt out of mathematics at an early age After introducing us to the children she addresses a particular type of mathematical task in each chapter including mental work practical work written work calculators and computers assessment tasks Through the use of stories and quotes the author shows how the children respond to specific tasks and presents evidence of a range of difficulties that emerge as the children are working Each chapter ends with discussions and implications for classroom practice Low Attainers in Primary Mathematics will be a useful resource for primary teachers student teachers SENCOs and teaching assistants who will all recognise these children from their own classrooms and draw insights from this highly readable book

Understanding and Teaching the ICT National Curriculum Franc Potter, Carol Darbyshire, 2005 There is still great uncertainty in the teaching profession regarding the effective delivery of ICT This introductory book provides both trainee and practising teachers with a clear understanding of the ICT National Curriculum and how to teach it Combining extensive practical advice with a critical discussion of the key theoretical issues the book will help teachers develop their pupils true ICT capability through clear explanations of the Programmes of Study full guidance on using QCA Scheme of Work different and creative ideas for delivering the ICT National Curriculum and the confidence and ability to go beyond the QCA Scheme of Work for ICT

The Children's Buyer's Guide, 2006 Children as Writers. 4, 1977 Sat Attack Maths Anne Frobisher, Len, 2004-12 SAT Attack Maths is the perfect 10 week revision programme for both independent and whole class maths teaching

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Beginning Teaching, Beginning Learning Janet Moyles, Gillian Robinson, 2002-03 Reviews of the first edition Janet Moyles's carefully and imaginatively edited book will be of great interest to a wide educational community This is more than a handbook for students and their tutors it is a manifest of the dedicated and closely focused professionalism of the University of Leicester team and I am sure that it will still be being read in ten years time by all concerned with primary education Mentoring and Tutoring How can new primary teachers not only survive but enjoy their chosen career What can newly qualified and student teachers do to recognize and address the many complexities of primary teaching What are the issues which continually challenge both new and experienced teachers The second edition of this successful text sets out to explore some of the wider issues surrounding work with children in the 3-11 years age range and considers how these are woven into the broad framework of teaching and teachers own learning Cameos and examples of classroom practice help to illustrate the aspects of teaching what it is to be an effective and competent teacher classroom processes such as planning observation and assessment the variety of ways in which children learn and develop thinking skills through various curriculum areas including ICT equal opportunities and special needs issues in loco parentis responsibilities and reflective approaches to teaching Written in an accessible style the aim throughout is to offer guidance and encouragement in the challenging and complex task of early years and primary teaching Comprehensively revised and updated throughout this second edition produced by colleagues from Anglia Polytechnic University and University of Leicester discusses teaching and learning in the context of recent initiatives such as the Foundation Stage the Literacy Hour the induction year for newly qualified teachers and the growth and development of ICT It will be an essential text for all students and newly qualified primary teachers

Education by Numbers Warwick Mansell,2007 It sounded a noble aim for New Labour to prioritise education The method they chose since coming to power was a relentless attempt to raise standards by an obsession with tests and exams in every school almost at every level Warwick Mansell researches the subject in detail and reveals how intention and practice differ so widely

EUDISED European Educational Research Yearbook 1997/98 ,1999 Reading in the Early Years Handbook Robin Campbell,2002 Reviews for the 1st Edition include Professor Campbell draws on his vast experience in this field to bring us a highly readable and wide ranging handbook which will prove invaluable to all practitioners BAECE Early Education the handbook will provide an accessible and informative source of reference Child Education Reading in the Early Years Handbook represents an admirable attempt to take a very complex set of issues and present them in a form which is accessible and uncomplicated but without the loss of any rigour or accuracy Students and teachers alike will find this volume to be invaluable as an initial reference book Language Awareness Reading in the Early Years Handbook is a reference text covering all aspects of young children learning to read In this second edition recent developments such as the literacy hour and baseline assessments are included The text covers a comprehensive list of topics from the alphabet to nursery rhymes shared reading and your classroom The text also deals with practical issues such as classroom organization and management and time for literacy In all sixty five topics are presented alphabetically and each of these topics is followed by suggestions for further reading Additionally several topics have In the classroom sections where examples from the classroom are used to highlight the practical issues Following the success of the first edition the comprehensive materials are again presented in a handbook format to enable easy access for readers

The Times Index ,2009 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement

Teaching 3-8 Mark O'Hara,2000 Providing comprehensive coverage of the issues involved in the new government chapters on 3 8 teaching this is a textbook for initial teacher training and for newly qualified teachers

The School Science Review ,2006 Assessment and Learning John Gardner,2006 The only book of its kind to provide a comprehensive overview of assessment used to support learning Assessment and Learning makes this area accessible and understandable for a wide range of users This unique text is a major source of practice based theory on assessment for learning a formative assessment to support individual development and motivate learners Key areas covered in the book include the practice of learning for assessment in the classroom developing motivation for learning professional learning and assessment for learning and assessment and theories of learning Special Educational Needs in the Primary School Jean Gross, 2002 Reviews of the first two editions extraordinarily rich in ideas an essential buy TES an excellent clearly written work which is full of practical advice and presented in an easily readable manner This book is a highly recommended read Do buy it and see Support for Learning has proved especially influential at practitioner level never failing to offer a balanced assessment British Journal of Special Education I have a comprehensive library of books on special educational needs but I use this one more than any other because I find it readable practical and accessible It is a useful and informative book both to read cover to cover and to dip into Although it is based on sound theoretical knowledge it is clear that Jean Gross is writing from her own experience as a teacher and SEN practitioner TES Recent legislation and cutbacks to central support services mean that the responsibility for meeting special educational needs is resting ever more squarely on the shoulders of ordinary classroom teachers Yet few feel wholly confident in their ability to adapt work within the national curriculum to meet the whole range of needs or coordinate successful individual education plans for children who for whatever reason are not learning as well as they might This book will increase that confidence Aimed at busy class teachers special needs coordinators heads and teachers in training it shows how the teacher can build differentiation into planning lessons and schemes of work It describes workable strategies for managing the most common behaviour difficulties and meeting special needs in language literacy and mathematics At a whole school level it offers practical guidance on reviewing special needs policies assessment record keeping and the management of roles and resources The focus is on the way in which schools can do a good job in meeting special needs themselves within the everyday constraints of time money and energy and in so doing provide genuinely inclusive opportunities for all children This edition has been comprehensively updated and rewritten to cover the revised SEN Code of Practice and related legislation new directions in inclusion and all the major curriculum initiatives now in place in primary schools The Secondary English Magazine ,2005

Francophonie ,2002 Middle Management in the Primary School Neville West, 1998 This second edition supports INSET courses designed to develop the essential management skills required by primary school middle managers Library + Information Update ,2005 Rhinegold Guide to Music Education ,2006
