Robinson, 1890

Pioneers in the Arab World Dorothy Van Ess, 1974 This first person account of the author's forty years in the Reformed Church mission to the Arabs reveals much of the significance of the missionary movement both for the world and for the churches that support it Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1971 Near East/North Africa Report, 1982 Nadia, Captive of Hope: Memoir of an Arab Woman Fay Afaf Kanafani, 2016-07-01 A rare feminist perspective on a people and a culture in one of the most tumultuous regions in the world Nadia Captive of Hope is the autobiography of Fay Afaf Kanafani an Arab Muslim woman born in Beirut in 1918 , Mental Health in Children and Adolescents with a Refugee Background Elisa Pfeiffer, Ilse Derluyn, 2023-10-17 Documents on the Arab-Israeli Conflict M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2023-04-17 This comprehensive compilation of some 595 documents on the Arab Israeli conflict and a variety of related issues includes all the materials the researcher analyst and student of this conflict and region needs in a single text from the years 1897 to 2003 Documents are listed in chronological order because many documents refer to more than one subject They are however identified in the introduction according to subject matter When different aspects recurred in a number of UN resolutions only the main document is included while others are referred to The compilation is not only about Palestinian issues It includes all relevant documents between Arab states and Israel from the armistice agreements 1949 to the peace treaties with Egypt 1979 and Jordan 1994 as well as their protocols and other documents that derive from these treaties The subject matter content is as varied as the legal and political issues presented by this conflict It includes geographical boundaries refugees water rights regional security elimination of weapons of mass destruction and of course human rights and peace Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9781571052902 The New Arab Man Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-03-25 Middle Eastern Muslim men have been widely vilified as terrorists religious zealots and brutal oppressors of women The New Arab Man challenges these stereotypes with the stories of ordinary Middle Eastern men as they struggle to overcome infertility and childlessness through assisted reproduction Drawing on two decades of ethnographic research across the Middle East with hundreds of men from a variety of social and religious backgrounds Marcia Inhorn shows how the new Arab man is self consciously rethinking the patriarchal masculinity of his forefathers and unseating received wisdoms This is especially true in childless Middle Eastern marriages where contrary to popular belief infertility is more common among men than women Inhorn captures the marital moral and material commitments of couples undergoing assisted reproduction revealing how new technologies are transforming their lives and religious sensibilities And she looks at the changing manhood of husbands who undertake transnational egg quests set against the backdrop of war and economic uncertainty out of devotion to the infertile wives they love Trenchant and emotionally gripping The New Arab Man traces the emergence of new masculinities in the Middle East in the era of biotechnology Women and the Politics of Military Confrontation Nahla Abdo-Zubi, Ronit Lenčin, 2002 Extrait de la couverture As the crisis in Israel does not show any signs of abating this remarkable collection edited by an Israeli and a Palestinian scholar and with contributions by Palestinian and Israeli women offers a vivid and harrowing picture of the conflict and of its impact of daily life especially as it affects women s experiences that differ significantly from those of men The auto biographical narratives in this volume focus on some of the most disturbing effects of the Israeli Palestinian conflict a sense of dislocation that goes well beyond the geographical meaning of the word it involves social cultural national and gender dislocation including alienation from one s own home family community and society The accounts become even more poignant if seen against the backdrop of the roots of the conflict the real or imaginary construct of a state to save and shelter particularly European Jews from the horrors of Nazism in parallel to the other side of the coin Israel as a settler colonial state responsible for the displacement of the Palestinian nation Fairouz and the Arab Diaspora Dima Issa, 2023-05-18 With a discography of over 1000 songs 20 musicals and three motion pictures the Lebanese singer and performer Fairouz is an artist of pan Arab appeal who has connected with listeners from diverse backgrounds and geographies for over four often tumultuous decades In this book Dima Issa explores the role of Fairouz s music in creating a sense of Arab identity amidst changing political economic context Based on two years of research including 60 interviews it takes an ethnographic approach focussing on audience reception of Fairouz s music among the Arab diasporas of London and Doha It shows that for discussants talking about Fairouz meant discussing diasporic life bringing to the surface notions of Arabness and authenticity presence and absence naturalization and citizenship and the issue of gender Conversations with the research respondents shed light on the idea of iltizam commitment or how members of the Arab diaspora hold on to attributes that they feel define and differentiate them from others Eve's Other Children Lucille Van Slyke,1912 Congressional Record United States.
