Popular Fiction and Spatiality Lisa Fletcher, 2016-10-31 This volume moves the debate about literature and geography in a new direction by showing the significance of spatial settings in the enormous and complex field of popular fiction Approaching popular genres as complicated systems of meaning the collected essays model key theoretical and critical approaches for interrogating the meaning of space and place across diverse genres including crime thrillers fantasy science fiction and romance Including topics such as classic English ghost stories blockbuster Antarctic thrillers prize winning Montreal crime fiction J R R Tolkien's Middle earth and China Mielle's Bas Lag among others this book brings together analyses of the real and imagined settings of some of the most widely read authors and texts of the twentieth and twenty first centuries to show how they have an immeasurable impact on our spatial awareness and imagination

Reclaiming the Teaching Discourse in Higher Education Ian M. Kinchin, 2025-02-20 This book examines university teaching to encourage a move away from the singular lens of neoliberalism towards more a pluralistic stance that inspires a healthy diversity of theories and practices University teaching is dominated by neoliberal cultures of measurement consumerism and deficit generating a monocultural narrative that disenfranchises the higher education teaching community Collaborative communities of support are now perceived as performative regimes of surveillance and existing injustices in the education system have been amplified by institutional responses to the COVID 19 pandemic This book offers a reappraisal of the current state of university teaching and reimaginings of potential futures Inspired by emerging perspectives in educational research and building upon Biesta's notion of the rediscovery of teaching the book encourages an escape from accepted wisdom liberating teaching from the bonds of reductive binary and linear thinking and accepting the need for a plurality of theoretical perspectives While universities use popular terms such as student centredness global excellence active learning and so on and will highlight key performance metrics such as student satisfaction or teaching excellence awards the reality is that much current teaching practice is rather traditional teacher centred passive and content heavy Despite managerial emphasis on best practice and evidence based practice teaching is not reducible to a simple set of competencies and student learning is not adequately summarised as a list of graduate attributes Teaching is relational and highly context dependent and our discussion of teaching should recognise this The performative culture pervading many campuses can dampen down large scale innovation leaving marginalised pockets of subversive collaboration and experimentation to operate below the corporate radar Here the contributors give voice to some of those emerging ideas and challenge neoliberal orthodoxy

Gender, Sexuality, Decolonization Ahonaa Roy, 2020-12-28 This book presents a new approach to the understanding of non normative sexuality and gender transgressive modes in South Asia and South Asian diaspora It reconceives sexual representation from the point of view of the theoretical political and empirical trajectories of decolonization provincialization and neoliberalism to look at the role of historical contingency postcolonial sexual politics and gender and sexual diversity The volume brings together anthropological historical material and political analyses around South Asian sexual politics by exploring a range of themes including culture class ethnicity identity intersectionality migration borders diaspora modernity and cosmopolitanism across various local regional and global contexts By using southern non Western and subaltern theorizations of gender and sexuality the book discusses South Asian sexualities through issues such as the sexual politics of indeterminacy sexual subculture iconography and political decision making religious identity queer South Asian diaspora decolonizing the postcolonial body sexual politics gender and feminist debates discrimination and socio political violence the political economy of empowerment and critical appropriation of the 377 Indian Penal Code It also builds forms of dialogues to bridge the gap between academic and development practitioners With diverse case studies and a fresh theoretical framework this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of South Asian studies gender studies sexuality studies sociology and social anthropology political studies diaspora studies postcolonial and global south studies      Titus Matiyane Titus Matiyane, Melinda Silverman, Stephen Hobbs, 2007      Reclaiming the Americas Tatiana Reinoza, 2023-04-18 Tatiana Reinoza examines how geography immigration and art all converged as deepening interests for Latinx graphic artists specifically those working in different forms of printmaking By highlighting the work of four artists based out of four distinct studios in East LA Tempe Austin and East Harlem she is able to uncover how their work these past three decades has transcended the more defined lines of scholarship that focus on specific ethnic groups Chicano Puerto Rican etc She makes a case for how spatial projects allow for a more collective critique of anti immigrant discourse visualize immigrant lives and articulate the ways in which printmaking has been historically complicit in the colonizing of the Americas      Convergence of Contemporary Art, Visual Culture, and Global Civic Engagement Shin, Ryan, 2016-11-29 Art is a multi faceted part of human society and often is used for more than purely aesthetic purposes When used as a narrative on modern society art can actively engage citizens in cultural and pedagogical discussions Convergence of Contemporary Art Visual Culture and Global Civic Engagement is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly material on the relationship between popular media art and visual culture analyzing how this intersection promotes global pedagogy and learning Highlighting relevant perspectives from both international and community levels this book is ideally designed for professionals upper level students researchers and academics interested in the role of art in global learning
