Zimsec June 2013 Business Studies Exam Paper:

Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26

This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa. Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels. However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed. Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology. This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities. The book is divided into four parts. Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa. Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa. Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa. Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa. Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union.

From Antagonism to Re-engagement Kamidza, Richard, 2017-07-19. The book interrogates the European Union EU Zimbabwe Economic Partnership Agreement EPA negotiations covering trade in goods trade related rules and development cooperation. The negotiations coincided with EU's motives as the dominant development partner and Zimbabwe's state stakeholder fault lines creating dilemmas in the pursuit of a fair EPA outcome. As a result the economically weak Zimbabwe signed and ratified an asymmetrical interim EPA iEPA with an economically powerful EU in 2009 and 2012 respectively. Meanwhile direct bilateral re engagement which eluded the Government of National Unity GNU became real following ZANU PF landslide victory on 31 July 2013 that sufficiently altered the power balance to trigger the process between the former nemesis in support of iEPA domestication and social and economic development. ZANU PF government stopped blaming the EU and other western nations for the country's continued economic under performance signaling a softening approach on its part. Similarly the EU and its member states softened its perception on ZANU PF leadership leading to resumption and intensification of re engagement despite failure to implement the Global Political Agreement related constitutional and democratic reforms agreed by GNU. This re engagement was firmly endorsed when the EU and Zimbabwe signed an agreement in July 2015 to normalise bilateral relations and start cooperation Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, Nhemachena, Artwell, 2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector s potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

African Studies in the Academy Munyaradzi Mawere, R. Mubaya, 2017-08-09 For a long time African Studies as a discipline has been spearheaded by academics and institutions in the Global North This puts African Studies on the continent at a crossroads of making choices on whether such a discipline can be legitimately accepted as an epistemological discipline seeking objectivity and truth about Africa and the African peoples or a discipline meant to perpetuate the Norths hegemonic socio economic political and epistemic control over Africa The compound question that immediately arises is Who should produce what and which space should African Studies occupy in the academy both of the North and of the South Confronted by such a question one wonders whether the existence of African Studies Centres in the Global North academics open opportunities for critical thinking on Africa or it opens possibilities for the emergence of the same discipline in Africa as a fertile space for trans disciplinary debate While approaches critical for the development of African Studies are pervasive in African universities through fields such as cultural studies social anthropology history sociology indigenous knowledge studies and African philosophy the discipline of African Studies though critical to Africa is rarely practised as such in the African academy and its future on the continent remains bleak African Studies in the Academy is a testimony that if honestly and objectively practised the crossroads position of African Studies as a discipline makes it a fertile ground for generating and testing new approaches critical for researching and understanding Africa It also challenges Africa to seriously consider assuming its legitimate position to champion African Studies from within These issues are at the heart of the present volume Handbook of Research on Entrepreneurship Development and Opportunities in Circular Economy Baporikar, Neeta, 2020-06-26 With the need for sustainability a focus on developing an economic system that aims at minimizing waste commonly referred to as the circular economy is emerging Circular economy and studies related to it have gained worldwide attention as it seems to be an effective alternative economic system Naturally the circular economy will impact enterprises and will shift how entrepreneurship development and entrepreneurial opportunities are perceived developed and resourced The Handbook of Research on Entrepreneurship Development and Opportunities in Circular Economy is a collection of pioneering research that advances the understanding of entrepreneurship development identifies the opportunities and manages the entrepreneurship development policies and programs in order to further a circular economy In addition to entrepreneurship development and entrepreneurial opportunities the book will cover and discuss a number of other factors necessary for a successful transformation such as entrepreneurship and innovation entrepreneurship and change and entrepreneurship education While highlighting topics including consumer consumption knowledge management and linear economics this book is ideally designed for entrepreneurs small business owners managers consultants organization development specialists policymakers researchers industry experts academicians and students make , Indian economic condition worst , then Zimbabwe , salaries of killer Indian police , Indian army, Civil servants ,MP,MLA, PMO =www.pmindia.nic.in , JIC,IB,MI RAW and Indian human dogs ,for salaries per months , Indian governmen Ruhel Chisty MRACI CChem A, The Laws of Globalization and Business Applications Pankaj Ghemawat, 2017 This book explains not only why the world isn't flat but also the patterns that govern cross border interactions
