Adopted Country, Adopted Son

Frank Hubbit, 2014-10-17 It is no easy task to adopt a child especially across different races nor is it easy to be adopted Jake and Nkanyiso have to work much harder than either of them probably expected to become a family of two Just as they are becoming settled after some trials Nkanyiso informs his adopted father that a male teacher has been sexually harassing him at school Jake does his best to protect his adopted son but neither of them is really prepared for the onslaught when Jake complains to the school Each of them has to deal with the others different world view Jakes respect for Zulu customs does not extend to funding Nkanyisos mothers training to become an isangoma money is too tight Nkanyiso wants to believe that no spirit can harm him as Jake says but the dark sorcerer hounds him continually and he starts to despair It is a story of bad things happening to ordinary people An adopted father and an adopted son against the background of a country still coming to terms with democracy
