approach to politics and he argues that the movement is certain to emerge again Lienesch explores in detail the writings of a wide range of Christian conservatives including Jerry Falwell Pat Robertson Phyllis Schlafly and Tim and Beverly LaHaye in order to illuminate the beliefs and ideas on which the movement is based Depicting the thinking of these writers as a set of concentric circles beginning with the self and moving outward to include the family the economy the polity and the world Lienesch finds shared themes as well as contradictions and tensions He also uncovers a complex but persistent pattern of thought that inspires periodic attempts to redeem America alternating with more inward looking intervals of personal piety
