A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized eye or a lens, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red outer ring.

Woman In The Muslim Unconscious:

Men's Ideas/Women's Realities Fatna A. Sabbah, 1984-11-01 Woman in the Muslim Unconscious Fatna Aït Sabbah, 1984 Women in the Muslim Unconscious Fatna A Sabbah, 1985 Woman in the Muslim unconscious Fatna AIT SABBAH, 1984 Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general This work discusses Mernissi's intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so called Islamic feminist theory The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali, 2024-09-17 The interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies and how to shift professional norms toward parity Despite remarkable shifts in the demographics of Islamic studies in recent decades the field continues to be dominated by men who often relegate other scholars and their work particularly research on gender to its periphery while treating subfields in which men predominate as more rigorous and central In The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali explores the interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies Examining publications citations curricula and media representations Ali finds that despite the growth and depth of scholarship on Islam and gender men continue to overlook women's scholarship even in work that purports to discuss gender issues Moreover media and social media dynamics make talking about Islam and Muslims for broader audiences especially fraught for scholars who are not men particularly when the topic is gender or sexuality Combining broad surveys with more focused analyses of a smaller set of texts Ali shows that textbooks and syllabi continue to exclude women as historical actors and scholars and to marginalize gender and sexuality as subject matter Finally she provides a Beginner's Guide to Eradicating Sexism in Islamic Studies offering practical strategies to help scholars avoid common pitfalls in their own work and contribute to broader professional transformations Desiring Arabs Joseph A. Massad, 2008-09-15 Sexual desire has long played a key role in Western judgments about the value of Arab civilization In the past Westerners viewed the Arab world as licentious and Western intolerance of sex led them to brand Arabs as decadent but as Western society became more sexually open the supposedly prudish Arabs soon became viewed as backward Rather than focusing exclusively on how these views developed in the West in Desiring Arabs Joseph A Massad reveals the history of how Arabs represented their own sexual desires To this aim he assembles a massive and diverse compendium of Arabic writing from the nineteenth century to the present in order to chart the changes in Arab sexual attitudes and their links to Arab notions of cultural heritage and civilization A work of impressive scope and erudition Massad's chronicle of both the history and modern permutations of the debate over representations of sexual desires and practices in the Arab world is a crucial addition to our understanding of a frequently oversimplified and vilified culture A pioneering work on a very timely yet frustratingly neglected topic I know of no other study that can even begin to compare with the detail and scope of this work Khaled El Rouayheb Middle East Report In Desiring Arabs Edward Said's disciple Joseph A Massad corroborates his mentor's thesis that orientalist writing was racist and dehumanizing Massad brilliantly goes on to trace the legacy of this racist internalized orientalist discourse up to the present Financial Times

Female Homosexuality in the Middle East Samar Habib, 2012-08-06 This book the first full length study of its kind dares to probe the biggest taboo in contemporary Arab culture with scholarly intent and integrity female homosexuality Habib argues that female homosexuality has a long history in Arabic literature and scholarship beginning in the ninth century and she traces the destruction of Medieval discourses on female homosexuality and the replacement of these with a new religious orthodoxy that is no longer permissive of a variety of sexual behaviours Habib also engages with recent gay historiography in the West and challenges institutionalized constructionist notions of sexuality

Embodying Religion, Gender and Sexuality Sarah-Jane Page, Katy Pilcher, 2020-12-27 Taking the notion of embodiment as a starting point this volume maps the interconnecting relationships between religion gender and sexuality The chapters highlight how the body its location the narratives that surround it its movement and negotiations is central to understanding these multifaceted relationships The contributors recognise the ways in which gender and sexuality are crucial to how we embody religion and encourage a more complex and nuanced understanding of embodied religion The material is organised according to three central themes 1 the relationship between the religious and the secular 2 power regulation and resistance and 3 the symbolism of gendered bodies Cutting across a range of disciplinary perspectives Embodying Religion Gender and Sexuality will be relevant to students of sociology anthropology gender and sexuality studies theology and religious studies

United in Hate Jamie Glazov, 2009 United in Hate analyzes the Left's contemporary romance with militant Islam as a continuation of the Left's love affair with communist totalitarianism in the twentieth century Just as the Left was drawn to the communist killing machines of Lenin Stalin Mao Pol Pot and Castro so too it is now attracted to radical Islam Both the radical Left and radical Islam possess a profound hatred for Western culture for a capitalist economic structure that recognizes individual achievement and for the Judeo Christian heritage of the United States Both seek to establish a new world order leftists in the form of a classless communist society and Islamists in the form of a caliphate ruled by Sharia law To achieve these goals both are willing to wipe the slate clean by means of limitless carnage with the ultimate goal of erecting their utopia upon the ruins of the system they have destroyed
