Clemens Wendtner

The Wayward Mind An Intimate History Of The Unconscious:

The Wayward Mind Guy Claxton, 2005 The unconscious has had a long and chequered history For at least the last 4 000 years societies have concocted comforting fables in the face of the recurrent puzzles of human existence death dreaming madness possession inspiration that invariably rely on some notion of the unconscious Supernatural fairy stories need some internal proxy or contact point through which the influence of demons and spirits can flow And without such gods and forces some psychological machinery is needed to take over their work But what IS the unconscious Is it God s viceroy the soul Is it the locked ward of Freudian desire Is the subliminal mind the source of the sublime emotions of the Romantics Is it the mental microchip of cognitive science Or is it simply the brain In this exceptional book Guy Claxton finally frees the unconscious from its narrow psychoanalytic confines and explores its evolution from the Sun God myths of Ancient Egypt to the insights of 21st century neuroscience

Going Beyond the Jesus Story Douglas Lockhart, 2011-09-30 Who am I Why am I Where am I headed and where have I been These are just some of the questions that concern the author of Going Beyond the Jesus Story a book that ranges freely across complex and intriguing subject areas such as the nature of religious belief contemplative and meditative experience lucid dreaming the role of feeling in our appreciation of reality the inherently spiritual nature of asking questions and our need to go beyond not only the Jesus story as it has come down to us but also the ingrained notion that self is an ongoing uninterrupted experience of the conscious mind that can be taken for granted

Directing our attention to the nature of attention itself we are introduced step by carefully constructed step to the idea that consciousness is not what we have assumed it to be or conscious awareness quite as conscious as we like to think it is Delving into history theology and philosophy in an attempt to reach an integrated understanding of the religious and secular problems we face as human beings the author examines ideas that confront and challenge on just about every level ideas that carry us towards an appreciation of what it means to presence the self to the self as an experience in its own right At this point theory gives way to experiment to methodology to a knowing or seeing that makes this book a unique contribution to the study of human sentience and its evolved and evolving structures The Creativity of Social Dreaming W. Gordon Lawrence, 2018-03-21 This broad range of papers covers different aspects of social dreaming The book begins with a summary of the Social Dreaming Matrix conceptualised as a temporary system with its intakes transformation processes and outputs The remaining chapters cover social dreaming in different contexts including amongst others from the perspectives of art architecture theatre working with immigrants with pilots and lawyers and family mediators and hospitals All the papers cover areas outside of the goal orientated activities of the institution and examine what they may be saying about the organization of the participants The Spirits of the Times Lia Theresa Schraeder, 2009 The Psychologist , 2006

Ancestral Grace Diarmuid Ó Murchú, 2008 It s the story of the human race and God s unfailing presence This fascinating account of humankind from our beginnings in Africa seven million years ago to the present blends history anthropology and spirituality to demonstrate that god has been and always will be with us from back cover What's Wrong with Us? Colin Feltham, 2007-08-13 What is the scope of the human condition What are the origins of universal human problems What is wrong with education marriage religion and therapy How likely are we as humans to correct these problems Colin Feltham Professor of Critical Counselling Studies at Sheffield Hallam University UK and member of Crisis Forum for the Study of Crisis in the 21st Century argues that the current crises of the human condition are merely symptoms of a chronic wayward tendency otherwise branded in What s Wrong With Us as anthropathology The origins of human suffering are traced with interdisciplinary adeptness exploring the contemporary issues of human violence deceit patriarchy rapaciousness child abuse irrationality and capitalist greed Our human anthropathology is assessed as being at the heart of such problems This book breaks new ground in bringing many anthropathological themes together in a sustained frontal attack on dangerous human anachronisms We cannot be sure that we can solve our problems but we can be sure that denying them will protract and worsen the situation for both ourselves and our descendants A challenging and enlightening book for students and academics in counselling and psychotherapy psychology sociology philosophy and religion Also a gripping read for those with a general interest in our current social state The Spectator , 2005 The Lure of the East Rana Kabbani, 2008 With its unprecedented focus on the history of Orientalism in British art this fascinating book examines the work of British artists who engaged with Middle Eastern themes over three centuries from the 1620s to the eclipse of the

Ottoman Empire in 1922 Paintings by British artists who travelled to the Islamic world during this period portray a wide range of subject matter from landscapes and interiors to portraits documentary and genre scenes The Lure of the East includes essays that discuss the beauty of these images as well as investigate the ways in which ideas about this beauty formed part of the larger history of Western political and colonial involvement with the region Placing the British within the genre of Orientalism this catalogue features both well known and rarely seen paintings as well as sketches and photographs by leading British artists from the eighteenth to the early twentieth centuries including works by Roger Fenton William Holman Hunt John Frederick Lewis Joshua Reynolds John Singer Sargent and Stanley Spencer The Lure of the East considers the shared legacy of British and Islamic artistic traditions as well as Western myths about the Islamic world in relation to artists direct experiences

BOOK JACKET Possession Craig E. Stephenson, 2009 This illuminating study addressed both to readers new to Jung and to those already familiar with his work offers fresh insights into a fundamental concept of analytical psychology Anatomizing Jung's concept of possession reinvests Jungian psychotherapy with its positive potential for practice Analogizing the concept lining it up comparatively beside the history of religion anthropology psychiatry and even drama and film criticism offers not a naive syncretism but enlightening possibilities along the borders of these diverse disciplines An original wide ranging exploration of phenomena both ancient and modern this book offers a conceptual bridge between psychology and anthropology it challenges psychiatry to culturally contextualize its diagnostic manual and it posits a much more fluid pluralistic and embodied notion of selfhood

Choice, 2007 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006
