The Viscount Who Loved Me Wiki:

Time Villains Victor Piñeiro, 2021-07-06 Magnificent Kirkus Reviews STARRED Review Story Thieves meets Escape from Mr Lemoncello's Library in this wacky hilarious and fast paced middle grade series starter with the perfect combination of magic imagination and adventure. Javi Santiago is trying his best not to fail sixth grade. So when the annual invite any three people to dinner homework assignment rolls around, Javi enlists his best friend Wiki and his sister Brady to help him knock it out of the park. But the dinner party is a lot more than they bargained for. The family's mysterious antique table actually brings the historical guests to the meal and Blackbeard the Pirate is turning out to be the worst guest of all time. Before they can say avast ye maties, Blackbeard escapes determined to summon his bloodthirsty pirate crew. And as Javi, Wiki and Brady try to figure out how to get Blackbeard back into his own time, they might have to invite some even zanier figures to set things right again. Praise for Time Villains Piñeiro scores with this tale of friendship, magic and adventure. Magnificent Kirkus Reviews STARRED Review It's got heart, it's got thrills, it's got pirates. You won't be able to put down this action-packed, relentlessly funny adventure. Sarah Mlynowski, author of the New York Times bestselling Whatever After series. A magical table that pulls in famous people from history and fiction. Is this the greatest idea for a book ever? Yes. Yes, it is. Come join the best dinner party in history and books full of pirates, sandwiches and history's greatest figures. James Riley, New York Times bestselling author of The Story Thieves series. Korn, Shakespeare's Histories on Screen Jennie M. Votava, 2023-06-29 This volume reframes the critical conversation about Shakespeare's histories and national identity by bringing together two growing bodies of work: early modern race scholarship and adaptation theory. Theorizing a link between adaptation and intersectionality, it demonstrates how over the past thirty years race has become a central and constitutive part of British and American screen adaptations of the English histories. Available to expanding audiences via digital media platforms, these adaptations interrogate the dialectic between Shakespeare's cultural capital and racial reckonings on both sides of the Atlantic and across time. By engaging contemporary representations of race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, disability and class, adaptation not only creates artefacts that differ from their source texts but also facilitates the conditions in which race and its intersections in the plays become visible. At the centre of this analysis stand two landmark 21st century history adaptations that use non-traditional casting: the British TV miniseries The Hollow Crown (2012, 2016) and the American independent film H4 (2012), an all-Black Henry IV conflation. In addition to demonstrating how the 21st century screen history illuminates both past and present constructions of embodied difference, these works provide a lens for reassessing two history adaptations from Shakespeare's 1990s box office renaissance when actors of colour were first cast in cinematic versions of the plays. As exemplified by these formal adaptations, reappropriations of race in history, non-traditional Shakespearean casting practices are also currently shaping digital culture's conversations about race in non-Shakespearean period dramas such as Bridgerton.
