The War On Terror How Should Christians Respond:

The War on Terror Nick Solly Megoran, David W. Augsburger, 2007 How do we love our enemies in an age of war and terror This book does not offer easy answers but it gives resources for approaching them from a Christian perspective By bringing solid biblical exposition to bear on the geopolitical events of our day political geographer Nick Solly Megoran provides a balanced Christian approach to the church's witness in an age of war and terror He first addresses why war happens and what our response should be Then he explores practical aspects of being citizens of heaven and how Christians can cultivate skills of peacemaking and forgiveness With vivid illustrations and global examples of Christian courage in the face of adversity he shows how the gospel brings hope to a violent world Appendices give additional study guides on different Christian approaches to war terrorism just war theory and pacifism Market Audience Church leaders Laypeople Evangelists and missionaries Seminary students and professors Features and Benefits Solid biblical exposition on key passages related to war and peacemaking Balanced global perspective with illustrations and examples from around the world Includes pros and cons of Christian approaches to just war and pacifism Middle East Meltdown John Ankerberg, Dillon

Burroughs, 2007-02-01 The news headlines from the war torn Middle East are constantly changing and though those countries are on the opposite side of the globe the events unfolding there have a powerful effect on America But the complexity of all that's happening makes it difficult to understand what it means and how it affects us Authors John Ankerberg and Dillon Burroughs help bring clarity to the issues as they answer these important questions Why does peace continue to elude the Arab nations and Israel What part does Middle East oil have in all this Where do Iran Lebanon and Hezbollah fit into the big picture What can we expect from today's new breed of terrorists What does the United States have at stake Readers who have perceived the Middle East conflict as too complicated to understand will gain a new appreciation for how today's events fit into God's plan for the future Fundamental Christian Ethics Daniel Heimbach, 2022-11-01 In Fundamental Christian Ethics Daniel Heimbach draws from decades of research and scholarship to introduce the field of Christian ethics in a comprehensive manner while showing how it dialogues with modern day ethical topics and issues

Christian Responses to Terrorism Gordon L. Heath, David Kirwa Tarus, 2017-11-01 How should Christians respond to terrorism and terrorists in their midst Terrorism is a global problem and no society on earth faces it alone The mainly Christian society of Kenya has suffered more than most as it attempts to counter the threat of al Shabaab Some pastors have asked for permission to carry guns Many Christians support government military action while others recommend pacifist stances and strive for dialogue and reconciliation with the Muslim community In this book ten Kenyan Christian thinkers and practitioners share their experiences and insights A response section from seven others including a Kenyan Muslim scholar enrich the discussion Geopolitics Jason Dittmer, Jo Sharp, 2014-06-27 It has been increasingly impossible to think about our changing world without coming across the term geopolitics In the wake of the invasion and occupation of Iraq by the United States United Kingdom and others geopolitics has been offered as an explanation for the occupation's failure to reinvent the Iraqi state and as a blueprint for future action But what is geopolitics Drawing both on academic and political material this book introduces readers to the concept of geopolitics from the first usage of the term to its more recent reconceptualisations The concept of geopolitics is introduced through four thematic sections Imperial Geopolitics Cold War Geopolitics Geopolitics after the Cold War and Reconceptualising Geopolitics Each section includes key writings from a range of diverse and leading authors such as Said Agnew Dalby O Tuathail Gregory Barnett and Kaplan and is accompanied by a critical introduction by the editors to guide the reader through the material This Reader establishes the foundations of geopolitics while also introducing readers to the continuing significance of the concept in the 21st century This Reader provides an essential resource that exposes students to original writing The Editors provide a pathway through the material with Section Introductions to assist the readers understanding of the context of the material and impacts of the writings The readings included draw from a range of authors writing from a range of locations The Reader concludes with the latest changes in geopolitical thought incorporating feminist and other perspectives

The African Christian and Islam John Azumah, Lamin Sanneh, 2013-06-14 During the summer of 2010 Ghana played host to the first ever conference held within Africa to focus solely on the relationship of the African Christian and Islam The event was led by John Azumah in partnership with the Center of Early African Theology The conference chaired by Archbishop John Olorunfemi Onaiyekan of Abuja welcomed over 50 participants from across 27 African countries and several denominations This book is a collection of the papers presented by 22 of the delegates forming a historical survey and thematic assessment of the African Christian and Islam In addition key information on the introduction spread and engagement of Islam and Christianity within 9 African countries is presented The book closes with Biblical reflections that opened each day of the conference providing useful examples of Christians reading the Bible in reference to Islam

Evangelical Christian Responses to Islam Richard McCallum, 2024-02-08 Do Christians and Muslims worship the same God Who was Muhammad How does the Israeli Palestinian conflict affect Christian Muslim relations This is a book about Evangelical Christians and how they are answering challenging questions about Islam Drawing on over 300 texts published by Evangelicals in the first two decades of the twenty first century this book explores what the Evangelical micro public sphere has to say about key issues in Christian Muslim relations today From the books they write the blogs they post and the videos they make it is clear that Evangelical Christians profoundly disagree with one another when discussing Islam Answers to the questions range from seeing Muslims as the enemy posing an existential threat to Christians through to welcoming them as good neighbours or even as close cousins

The War on Terrorism and the Terror of God Lee Griffith, 2002 Uniquely relevant in a world shaken by recent acts of terror this title calls people of faith to the way of peace the Christian response to evil and violence

The Christian Answer Henry Pitney Van Dusen, 1901 Christians and Muslims Peter G. Riddell, 2004 This survey explores the diverse

Muslim approaches to British society and identifies the evolving approaches to other faiths found within the churches Securely underpinned with Christian theology it examines the many areas in which Christians and Muslims living within secular societies share common concerns and identifies where religion ends and culture begins Most significantly it explores how and why Christian Muslim relationships can and urgently must be improved BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      War and the Christian Conscience Joseph Fahey,2005 The Christian tradition has supplied a variety of answers to the question of war but how are we to decide which one is right More basically how does one go about forming one s personal conscience For all who ponder these questions whether young people facing military service or counselors chaplains or teachers this book is essential Provided by publisher      The Christian Advocate ,1898      Just War on Terror? Dr David Fisher,Mr Brian Wicker,2013-06-28 Following the 9 11 attacks by Al Qa ida President Bush declared war on terror In the succeeding years Western governments have struggled to find the right way to respond to the new and deadly threat posed by terrorism With the election of President Obama the rhetoric has softened and policies have been adjusted but the underlying problems and challenges remain the same Meanwhile the war on terrorism in Afghanistan has been intensified Drawing on just war teaching as developed within both Christian and Muslim traditions this book examines whether and how liberal democracies can combat the new global terrorism both effectively and justly The authors including distinguished academics from both sides of the Atlantic Christian and Muslim theologians former senior civil servants and a General deploy a wide range of experience and expertise to address one of the most difficult and pressing ethical challenges to contemporary society      Response ,2002      Moral Issues and Christian Response Paul T. Jersild,1971      Christian Responses to Islam Anthony O'Mahony,Emma Loosley,2008-11-15 This is the only book currently on the market that attempts to construct a global perspective of Christian Muslim interaction in a post 9 11 world

Blood Guilt Philip Kapusta,2015-10-07 The author uses September 11th 2001 and America s subsequent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq as the backdrop for his personal essays on Christian separatism It is the author s belief that an unbelieving world will ridicule and reject as false a religion whose adherents claim to follow a Prince of Peace but who refuse to lay down the sword and scepter The incongruity between the teachings of Jesus and the actions of Christians in these areas discredits the Gospel Christianity s sanction of war and its affiliation with the military are the most glaring and damaging expressions of Christian inconsistency destroying the only real and meaningful alternative that can be presented to a war torn world      The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1915      The Christian Ethic of War Peter Taylor Forsyth,1916      Christian Advocate ,1907
