prayer's origin is not clear. Some say it dates back as far as the twelfth century. It has been attributed to the theologian Reinhold Niebuhr and dated as early as 1934 by his wife, but it does not appear in his writing until many years later. The short version has only a few lines: God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, The courage to change the things I can, And the wisdom to know the difference. The prayer has been widely used by many helping organizations and expanded by adding lines like: Living one day at a time, Enjoying one moment at a time, Accepting hardships as a pathway of peace, reasonably happy in this life, and Happy with God forever. This book will focus on the short version, utilizing some of the other lines in giving a broader biblical, theological, and practical foundation to the words: serenity, courage, and wisdom.
