Machen, 2017-02-10 A discussion between two men on the nature of evil leads one of them to reveal a mysterious Green Book he possesses It is a young girl's diary in which she describes in ingenuous evocative prose her strange impressions of the countryside in which she lives as well as conversations with her nurse who initiates her into a secret world of folklore and ritual magic Throughout the girl makes cryptic allusions to such topics as nymphs D ls volas white green and scarlet ceremonies Aklo letters the Xu and Chian languages Mao games and a game called Troy Town the last of which is a reference to actual practices involving labyrinths or labyrinthine dances The girl's tale gradually develops a mounting atmosphere of suspense with suggestions of witchcraft only to break off abruptly just at the point where a supreme revelation seems imminent In a return to the frame story the diary's custodian reveals that the girl had poisoned herself in time making the analogy of a child finding the key to a locked medicine cabinet The White People and Other Weird Stories Arthur

White People Arthur Machen, 2024-05-30 The White People the story was written in the late 1890s as part of Machen's struggle to find a direction for a projected novel other outgrowths of which were published as the novella A Fragment of Life collected in The House of Souls and as the collection of prose poems Ornaments in Jade 1924 A discussion between two men on the nature of evil leads one of them to reveal a mysterious Green Book he possesses It is a young girl's diary in which she describes in ingenuous evocative prose her strange impressions of the countryside where she lives and conversations with her nurse who initiates her into a secret world of folklore and black magic The Order of Sounds Francois J.

Bonnet, 2019-01-15 This study of the subtlety complexity and variety of modes of hearing maps out a sonorous archipelago a heterogeneous set of shifting sonic territories shaped by the vicissitudes of desire and discourse Profoundly intimate yet immediately giving onto distant spaces both an organ of fear and an echo chamber of anticipated pleasures an uncontrollable flow subject to unconscious selection and augmentation the subtlety complexity and variety of modes of hearing has meant that sound has rarely received the same philosophical attention as the visual In The Order of Sounds Francois J Bonnet makes a compelling case for the irreducible heterogeneity of sound navigating between the physical models constructed by psychophysics and refined through recording technologies and the synthetic production of what is heard From primitive vigilance and sonic mythologies to digital sampling and sound installations he examines the ways in which we make sound speak to us in an analysis of listening as a plurivocal phenomenon drawing on Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Barthes Nancy Adorno and de Certeau and experimental pioneers such as Tesla Bell and Raudive Stringent critiques of the soundscape and reduced listening demonstrate that univocal ontologies of sound are always partial and politicized for listening is always a selective fetishism a hallucination of sound filtered by desire and convention territorialized by discourse and its authorities Bonnet proposes neither a disciplined listening that targets sound itself nor an ocean of sound in which we might lose ourselves but instead maps out a sonorous archipelago a heterogeneous set of shifting sonic territories shaped and aggregated by the vicissitudes of desire and discourse

Rees,2013-10-28 Marshland is a deep map of the east London marshes a blend of local history folklore and weird fiction where nothing is quite as it seems Cocker spaniel by his side Rees wanders the marshes of Hackney Leyton and Walthamstow avoiding his family and the pressures of life He discovers a lost world of Victorian filter plants ancient grazing lands dead toy factories and tidal rivers on the edgelands of a rapidly changing city Ghosts are his friends As strange tales of bears crocodiles magic narrowboats and apocalyptic tribes begin to manifest themselves Rees embarks on a psychedelic journey across time and into the dark heart of London It soon becomes clear that the very existence of the marshland is at threat For on all sides the developers are closing in
