M. Nation, 2003-01-01 Smashing the Liquor Machine Mark Lawrence Schrad, 2021 When most people think of the prohibition era they think of speakeasies gin runners and backwoods fundamentalists railing about the ills of strong drink In other words in the popular imagination it is a peculiarly American event Yet as Mark Lawrence Schrad shows in Smashing the Liquor Machine the conventional scholarship on prohibition is extremely misleading for a simple reason American prohibition was just one piece of a global wave of prohibition laws that occurred around the same time Schrad's counterintuitive global history of prohibition looks at the anti alcohol movement around the globe through the experiences of pro temperance leaders like Thomas Masaryk founder of Czechoslovakia Vladimir Lenin Leo Tolstoy and anti colonial activists in India Schrad argues that temperance wasn't American exceptionalism at all but rather one of the most broad based and successful transnational social movements of the modern era In fact Schrad offers a fundamental re appraisal of this colorful era to reveal that temperance forces frequently aligned with progressivism social justice liberal self determination democratic socialism labor rights women's rights and indigenous rights By placing the temperance movement in a deep global context he forces us to fundamentally rethink all that we think we know about the movement Rather than a motley collection of puritanical American evangelicals the global temperance movement advocated communal self protection against the corrupt and predatory liquor machine that had become exceedingly rich off the misery and addictions of the poor around the world from the slums of South Asia to central Europe to the Indian reservations of the American west Unlike many traditional dry histories Smashing the Liquor Machine gives voice to minority and subaltern figures who resisted the global liquor industry and further highlights that the impulses that led to the temperance movement were far more progressive and variegated than American readers have been led to believe

Nation Fran Grace, 2001-07-20 Carry A Nation Retelling the Life Fran Grace The story of one of America's most notorious and misunderstood women Carry Nation was 54 when she smashed her first saloon but her life before she started her infamous hatchet crusade has been little known until now In this first scholarly biography of Nation Fran Grace unfolds a story that often contrasts with the image of Nation as Crazy Carry a bellicose blue nosed man hating killjoy Using newly available archival materials and placing Nation in her various historical and cultural contexts Grace retells the crusader's tumultuous life Brought up in antebellum Kentucky Nation lived through the devastation of the Civil War and endured a failed marriage to an alcoholic physician In her early 20s a single mother and a destitute widow she experienced a spiritual crisis Her second marriage to a much older David Nation grew strained under the failure of their Texas farm her exploration into Holiness religion and her attempts to work outside the home When the couple moved to Kansas Nation's disappointments translated into an agenda for social reform Frustrated by the rampant violations of the state's prohibition law and empowered by a sense of divine mission Nation responded with rocks crowbars and hatchets Though much of her last two decades was spent on stage or in jail and in battles with other family members over the future of her unstable adult daughter she edited two newspapers and founded several homes for abused and needy women This complexly woven and delightfully written biography adds depth to the popular image of Carry Nation situating her at the center of major cultural currents in her time Fran Grace is Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at the University of Redlands Religion in North America Catherine L Albanese and Stephen J Stein editors May 2001 400 pages 57 b w photos 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 bibl index append cloth 0 253 33846 8 35 00 s 26 50
