Hausoul, 2020-04-09 There is a growing focus on the Christian confession of God's completed kingdom the new heaven and the new earth This theme has time and again seduced people into elaborate fantasies that stimulated the senses How can we talk about it meaningfully Raymond R Hausoul relates systematic theology to biblical theology by comparing three theologians the Catholic theologian Karl Rahner the Protestant Jurgen Moltmann and the Reformed Gregory Beale This leads to reflections on differences between matter space and time of the new heaven and new earth and those of our present reality The hope for renewal and resurrection is thus linked to the prophecies of the new Jerusalem the tree of life and the resurrection body

Köstenberger, 2020-06-01 This book studies the Holy Spirit through the lens of both biblical and systematic theology The Persistence of God's Endangered Promises Allan J. McNicol, 2017-12-28 Using a thorough integrated biblical theology to make sense of the master story of Scripture Allan J McNicol explores the nature and importance of the Bible's abiding narrative of the persistence of God's promises to his people and their hope of final triumph Special attention is given to the often contentious claim that these early followers of Jesus presumed that they stood in full continuity with Israel the historic people of God and were claiming that many of God's promises were coming to fulfilment among them McNicol presents a closer analysis of the texts as he shows how the theme of the people of God fits into the wider literary productions of these major New Testament writers
