Feminist Solidarity at the Crossroads Kim Marie Vaz, Gary L. Lemons, 2012-03-12 Women s studies programs and departments face ongoing fall out from an economic crisis in higher education Taking the form of budget cuts reduction of faculty lines and other resource allocations for some programs and departments it has meant at best a loss of disciplinary autonomy through consolidation and at worst academic foreclosure Feminist Solidarity at the Crossroads articulates a politics of commitment hope and possibility wrought in the coming together of a group of feminist women and men across racial cultural nation state sexual and gender differences during a tough budgetary time threatening Women s Studies programs across the nation This anthology affirms the continued necessity of bridge building alliances in women s studies and contemplates with promise the theory and practice of feminist solidarity forged through the course of its production While the essays in this book display a complex diversity of feminist thought and modes of intersectional strategies they reflect a unity of comradery and a spirit of collectivity so necessary for these turbulent times

The Contradictions of Love Lena Gunnarsson, 2014-01-03 The Contradictions of Love Towards a feminist realist ontology of sociosexuality offers a robust and multifaceted theoretical account of how in contemporary western societies women continue to be subordinated to men through sexual love The book defends and elaborates Anna G J nasd ttir s thesis that men tend to exploit women of their love power by means of an innovative application of critical realism dialectical critical realism and the philosophy of metaReality Gunnarsson also offers a critique of the state of affairs of contemporary feminist theory The author demonstrates that the meta theoretical framework of critical realism offers the tools that can counter the poststructuralist hegemony still prevailing in feminist theory On a general level The Contradictions of Love attempts at reconciling theoretical positions which tend to appear in opposition to one another In particular it offers a way of bridging the gap between the notion of love as a locus of exploitation and that of love as a force which can conquer oppression This book is a unique and timely contribution in the field of feminist theory in that it offers the first elaborate assessment and development of J nasd ttir s important but relatively sidestepped work and in that it counters poststructuralist trends from the point of view of a robust critical realist framework that has hitherto been spectacularly absent in feminist theory although it offers solutions to metatheoretical problems at the forefront of feminist debates in the field of critical realism broadly defined in that it elaborates on crucial ontological themes of dialectical critical realism and the philosophy of metaReality via a discussion of the issues of love sexuality gender and power and finally in the field of love studies in that it offers a sophisticated account of how gender asymmetries prevail in love despite norms of gender equality and reciprocity and in that it reconciles feminist conflict oriented perspectives on love with notions of love as transcending conflict
