Through Our Eyes Conversations With Kids About Topics That Matter:

Through Our Eyes Iffer Beisswenger, Margaret Eldred, Reese Class, 2007-05 A serial killer is stalking the community He leaves subtle clues Or are they The murders are perfect the clues and evidence left break all traditional investigative formalities The book is unique in the way you interpret the emotions With a clever switching of tenses the author allows you the reader to be the victim and the killer You feel the pain and emotions of the victim You experience the excitement the thoughts and the reasoning of the Killer Both visions bring you to the point of death With the author's experiences and knowledge of the field the book offers a close up and front seat realistic view of the investigative process Mind Over Matter Jordin Tootoo, Stephen Brunt, 2025-10-07 Following the bestselling success of the inspiring All the Way pioneering Inuit NHLer Jordin Tootoo begins the process of healing in the wake of the suicide and violence that marks his family only to discover the source of all that trauma in his father's secret past For some hockey players retirement marks the moment when it's all over But Jordin Tootoo is not most hockey players Having inspired millions when he first broke into the league Tootoo continued to influence people throughout his career not only through his very public triumph over alcoholism but also his natural charisma And now years after hanging up his skates he is more committed to doing things the right way and speaking about it to others whether it's corporate executives or Indigenous youth But the news of unmarked graves on the grounds of residential schools brought back to life many of the demons that had haunted his family In a moment of realization that left him rattled and saddened Tootoo fit the pieces together The years that were never spoken of The heavy drinking The all too predictable violence His father was a survivor marked by what he had survived As he travels back to Nunavut to try to speak with his father about what haunts him he encounters the ghosts of the entire community Still as Tootoo says we are continuously learning and rewriting our story at every step He has learned from his mistakes and his victories He has learned from examples of great courage and humility He has learned from being a father and a husband And he has learned from his own Inuk traditions of perseverance and discipline in the face of hardship Weaving together life's biggest themes with observations and experiences Jordin shares the kind of wisdom he has had to specialize in the hard won kind Talk With Your kids: Big Ideas Michael Parker, 2014-05-01 Talk With Your Kids Big Ideas is the second in the Talk With Your Kids series by Michael Parker Once again Michael stirs up all of those tricky questions that parents often avoid such as what is infinity What is democracy Or even can I own a gun Big Ideas has over 75 conversations for parents to have with their children to try and tackle those large questions about life and the universe Michael Parker promotes the use of the questions for a platform for discussion with children which will engage them more than a simple read of a book Michael uses varied formatting such as the use of multiple choice questions visual scenarios or open ended questions to engage both children and parents alike and stimulate discussion Talk With Your Kids Big Ideas is a tool for parents to help their children understand aspects of the world that they might not even understand in the first place Getting Through to Your Kids Michael H. Popkin, Robyn

Freedman Spizman,2002-03-05 From toddlers to teens children are full of questions While we all want to give the right answers we don't always know whether to be detailed or discreet protective or honest Drawn from the advice and experiences of dozens of psychological medical and educational experts as well as countless parents this timely and telling book offers answers to all the questions kids are bound to ask Learn How to jumpstart a conversation and simplify complicated topics How to know the best age to talk about sex drugs and other subjects Why once isn't always enough and why some topics need to be revisited Whether some questions are best left unanswered How to gain a child's confidence and respect

The Parenting Project Amy Alamar,Kristine Schlichting,2018-11-20 In a world full of many influences The Parenting Project shows you how through the practice of daily conversation to maintain influence in your child's life Are you losing the influence game with your children If you want to direct your child's growth then they need to get to know you In The Parenting Project parenting experts Dr Amy Alamar and Dr Kristine Schlichting show you how to talk with your children on a regular basis to gain their trust In a time when kids have many things vying for their attention you want to become the go to person the one they turn to the most for advice and comfort Sometimes it's difficult to speak with your children about serious subjects That's why The Parenting Project teaches you how to make a habit of it providing you with prompts to help start potentially difficult conversations across a broad range of subjects that apply to everyday life The authors have divided these conversations into five categories to inform your approach Heart based Uncomfortable Dangerous Character and Brave because each type requires different strategies and conversation starters The book includes story after story of how parents have built extraordinary relationships with kids through the act of talking with one another day by day With some help from Dr Alamar and Dr Schlichting it will be become easier to open up conversations with rather than at your children so that when the big questions arise your child will turn to you first

Woke Parenting Faith G. Harper,Bonnie Scott, MS, MA, LPC,2021-10-26 How do you raise your kids to be feminist anti racist gender inclusive self compassionate and with strong respect for boundaries and consent in a society that offers mixed messages on all these things especially when none of this was part of your own upbringing How can you prepare the next generation to find joy and stability and also cope with economic instability police brutality political polarization militant nationalism and environmental disaster Parents and therapists Dr Faith Harper and Bonnie Scott have written a parenting guide for the 21st century Drawing from their own experiences raising diverse politically active young people this book will help you raise a new generation of civil rights leaders and activists who will change the world for the better all while maintaining your own separate identity and relationships and without losing your mind
