For Tibet, With Love Isabel Losada, 2011-06-06 Sometimes you just have to do something don't you Sometimes an injustice comes along and you think No this cannot be and rather than just turn off the TV you know it's time to act So begins Isabel Losada's extraordinary FOR TIBET WITH LOVE in which she explores whether it's possible for an ordinary person to change the world just a little and if something so serious can be achieved with joy in one's heart From visits to Nepal and Tibet to meetings with the Chinese ambassador and Tibetan awareness raising groups Isabel single handedly hatches a stunning PR coup involving Nelson's Column a 15 metre banner and a base jumping parachutist that captured headlines worldwide And then she meets the Dalai Lama Warm and funny moving and thought provoking the astonishing FOR TIBET WITH LOVE celebrates the fact that we can make a difference

Frontier Tibet Stéphane Gros, 2025-10-01 Frontier Tibet Patterns of Change in the Sino Tibetan Borderlands addresses a historical sequence that sealed the future of the Sino Tibetan borderlands. It considers how starting in the late nineteenth century imperial formations and emerging nation states developed competing schemes of integration and debated about where the border between China and Tibet should be. It also ponders the ways in which this border is internalised today creating within the People's Republic of China a space that retains some characteristics of a historical frontier. The region of eastern Tibet called Kham the focus of this volume is a productive lens through which processes of place making and frontier dynamics can be analysed. Using historical records and ethnography the authors challenge purely externalist approaches to convey a sense of Kham's own centrality and the agency of the actors involved. They contribute to a history from below that is relevant to the history of China and Tibet and of comparative value for borderland studies. Trans-Himalaya -

Discoveries and Adventurers in Tibet, Vol. 2 Sven Hedin, 2023 One of the most important travel books ever written is the story of Dr Sven Hedin's discoveries and adventures in Tibet which he has brought out in two volumes under the general title Trans Himalaya. Besides being a closely woven carefully prepared account of the achievements of a scientific explorer geographer and ethnologist this work is an entertainingly told story of startling experiences exciting adventures and really remarkable achievements in the field of exploration. The expedition of this Swedish explorer started in August 1906 entering the Forbidden Land from the northwest. He thoroughly explored the country penetrating with the aid of his thirty seven Asiatic followers into sections in which not only had no Western man ever trodden but in which the existence even of Europe was unknown. Dr Hedin's description of his meeting with the Tashi Lama shows that head of the Buddhist church to be not a divinity in human form but a man who in kindness of heart innocence and purity approaches as near as possible to perfection. This is volume two out of two. Pioneer in Tibet Douglas Wissing, 2015-03-17 Dr Albert Shelton was a medical missionary and explorer who spent nearly twenty years in the Tibetan borderlands at the start of the last century. During the Great Game era the Sheltons' sprawling station in Kham was the most remote and dangerous mission on earth. Raising his family in a land of banditry and civil war caught between a weak Chinese government and the British Raj Shelton proved to be a resourceful frontiersman. One of the West's first interpreters of Tibetan culture during the course of his work in Tibet he was praised by the Western press as a family man revered doctor respected diplomat and fearless adventurer. To the American public Dr Albert Shelton was Daniel Boone Wyatt Earp and the apostle Paul on a new frontier. Driven by his goal of setting up a medical mission within Lhasa the seat of the Dalai Lama and a city off limits to Westerners for hundreds of years Shelton acted as a valued go between for the Tibetans and Chinese Recognizing his work the Dalai Lama issued Shelton an invitation to Lhasa Tragically while finalizing his entry Shelton was shot to death on a remote mountain trail in the Himalayas Set against the exciting history of early twentieth century Tibet and China Pioneer in Tibet offers a window into the life of a dying breed of adventurer
