University Of Lipompo Application Forms For 2015:

Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen,2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale assets of these institutions Jansen argues that the problem won t be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa

Boadu, Gideon,Odhiambo, George,Marandi, Pegah,2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich diverse political and educational contexts and practices this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa Covering topics such as educational reforms equity career progression and curriculum development this major reference work is ideal for administrators industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management Musundire,

Austin,2025-05-13 Various research methods including action case study and experimental research can be tailored for educational leadership and management Different research designs data collection techniques and data analysis methods have differing strengths weaknesses and challenges As a result it is crucial to develop the skills and confidence needed to

Minorities, Scarcity and Conflict Antonio Montañés Jiménez,Camila Ferreira Marinelli,Stavroula Pipyrrou,2025-07-17 This volume places scarcity as a defining aspect of minorities experience and as a tool to comprehend ongoing and unresolved societal friction and global environmental challenges strategies for survival and reproduction of the status quo and aspirational desires for social mobility The book is an experimental collective intellectual project departing from conventional approaches to scarcity solely as a resource based economic or demographic concept Boldly the book looks at the ways in which disadvantaged social groups navigate their lives through scarcity and how these circumstances are endured interpreted accepted or challenged In a thought provoking turn the book makes a novel contribution to minority studies by engaging with scarcity not only concerning resources but also emotion memory and affect In analysing scarcity as a multidimensional analytical framework and interrogating it from manifold angles the book unpacks uncharted ramifications of debates around scarcity and opens new lines of enquiry The collection will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of law political anthropology and sociology

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Patterson,Tracy Kuperus,Megan Hershey,2023-08-10 Making up 65 percent of Africa s population young people between the ages of 18 and 35 play a key role in politics yet they live in an environment of rapid urbanization high unemployment rates and poor state services Drawing from extensive fieldwork in Ghana Uganda and Tanzania this book investigates how Africa s urban youth cultivate a sense of citizenship in this challenging environment and what it means to them to be a good citizen In interviews and focus group discussions African youth activists and community leaders vividly explain how income religion and gender intertwine with their sense of citizenship and belonging Though Africa s urban youth face economic and political marginalization as well as generational tensions they craft a creative citizenship identity that is rooted in their relationships and obligations both to each other and the state Privileging above all the voice and agency of Africa s young people this is a vital systematic examination of youth and youth citizenship in urban environments across Africa The Politics of Precarity Gediminas Lesutis,2021-12-30 Based on critical theory and ethnographic research this book explores how intensifying geographies of extractive capitalism shape human lives and transformative politics in marginal areas of the global economy Engaging the work of Judith Butler Henri Lefebvre and Jacques Rancière with ethnographic research on social and political effects of mining induced dispossession in Mozambique in the book Lesutis theorises how precarity unfolds as a spatially constituted condition of everyday life given over to the violence of capital Going beyond labour relations or governance of life in liberal democracies that are typically explored in the literature on precarity the book shows how dispossessed people are subjected to structural symbolic and direct modalities of violence this simultaneously constitutes their suffering and ceaseless desire however implausible to be included into abstract space of extractivism As a result despite the multifarious violence that it engenders extractive capital accumulation is sustained even in the margins historically excluded from contingently lived imaginaries of a good life promised by capitalism Presenting this theorisation of precarity as a framework on and a critique of the contemporary politics of unliveability the book speaks to key debates about precarity dispossession resistance extractivism and development in several disciplines especially political geography IPE global politics and critical theory It will also be of interest to scholars in development studies critical political economy and African politics

Anthropology and Responsibility Melissa Demian,Mattia Fumanti,Christos Lynteris,2023-03-31 This book explores the role and implications of responsibility for anthropology asking how responsibility is recognised and invoked in the world what relations it draws upon and how it comes to define notions of the person institutional practices ways of knowing and modes of evaluation The category of responsibility has a long genealogy within the discipline of anthropology and it surfaces in contemporary debates as well as in anthropologists collaboration with other disciplines including when anthropology is applied in fields such as development medicine and humanitarian response As a category that unsettles challenges and critically engages with political ethical and epistemological questions responsibility is central to anthropological theory ethnographic practice collaborative research and applied engagement With chapters focused on a variety of cultural contexts this volume considers how anthropology can contribute to a better understanding of responsibility including the responsibility of anthropology and the responsibility of anthropologists to specific others Indigenous Language for Social Change Communication in the Global South Tshepang Bright Molale,Abiodun Salawu,Mohammad Sahid Ullah,Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed,2023-05-22 Indigenous Language for Social Change Communication in the Global South brings together voices from the margins to engage in dialogue about common social change issues in Latin America Africa and Asia This book argues that resistance and social movements expressed in music and songs and exchanged via radio remain fundamental to ensure that the linguistic and cultural diversity of the world progresses despite colonizing pressures Contributors present cases that explore how indigenous communities use mediums such as the radio to help support their language identity and expand their own social change Highlighting the centrality of music in the development of political discussions and language as a central part of collective identity contributors analyze how these mediums function as both a vessel and a link for information and cultural cohesion of those engaging in social change Scholars of communication sociology and development studies will find this book of particular interest

The Archaeology of Southern Africa Peter Mitchell, 2024-06-06 Some of humanity's earliest ancestors lived in southern Africa and evidence from sites there has inspired key debates on human origins and the emergence of complex cognition Building on its rich rock art heritage archaeologists have developed theoretical work that continues to influence rock art studies worldwide with the relationship between archaeological and anthropological data central to understanding past hunter gatherer pastoralist and farmer communities alike New work on pre colonial states contests models that previously explained their emergence via external trade while the transformations wrought by European colonialism are being rewritten to emphasise Indigenous agency feeding into efforts to decolonise the discipline itself Inhabited by humans longer than almost anywhere else and with an unusually varied complex past southern Africa thus has much to contribute to archaeology worldwide In this revised and updated edition Peter Mitchell provides a comprehensive and extensively illustrated synthesis of its archaeology over more than three million years

Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Higher Education Pathways Paul Ashwin, M.

Case, 2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues
