InsUrgent Media from the Front Chris Robé, Stephen Charbonneau, 2020-11-03 In the 1940s it was 16 mm film In the 1980s it was handheld video cameras Today it is cell phones and social media Activists have always found ways to use the media du jour for quick and widespread distribution InsUrgent Media from the Front takes a look at activist media practices in the 21st century and sheds light on what it means to enact change using different media of the past and present Chris Rob and Stephen Charbonneau s edited collection uses the term insUrgent media to highlight the ways grassroots media activists challenged and are challenging hegemonic norms like colonialism patriarchy imperialism classism and heteronormativity Additionally the term is used to convey the sense of urgency that defines media activism Unlike slower traditional media activist media has historically sacrificed aesthetics for immediacy Consequently this run and gun method of capturing content has shaped the way activist media looks throughout history With chapters focused on indigenous resistance community media and the use of media as activism throughout US history InsUrgent Media from the Front emphasizes the wide reach media activism has had over time Visibility is not enough when it comes to media activism and the contributors provide examples of how to refocus the field not only to be an activist but to study activism as well Politically Reflective

Psychotherapy Manuel Llorens, 2020-10-27 This book shows how clinical psychology has been deliberately used to label control and oppress political dissidence under oppressive regimes and presents an epistemological and theoretical framework to help psychologists deal with the political dilemmas that surround clinical practice Based on his own experience working as a clinical and community psychologist in Venezuela for almost twenty five years the author recounts the controversial history of how the Bolivarian Revolution has used psychology to persecute and oppress political dissidents recovers the experience of doing psychotherapy under oppressive regimes in other countries and stresses the importance of developing an ethically and politically aware clinical practice The first part of the book presents the dilemmas psychotherapists have faced in different parts of the world such as the former Soviet Union USA China Spain Hungary Argentina Brazil Uruguay and Venezuela when dealing with the intrusion of the political domain in clinical research and practice and the difficulties clinicians have had in dealing with these issues The second part of the book presents an epistemological and theoretical framework from which these issues may be tackled effectively The book helps raise awareness of the risks of framing psychotherapy as apolitical as well as the benefits of thinking of our lives as contextualized in our political settings It draws from several theoretical options that have been useful to challenge traditional clinical theory and include the political in our clinical comprehensions In particular Latin American Community Psychology that has developed tools to favor awareness of political issues has been used to expand the psychotherapeutic conversation Politically Reflective Psychotherapy Towards a Contextualized Approach will help clinical psychologists psychiatrists and other social and mental health workers reflect on the challenges psychotherapy faces in a politically polarized society showing how the political dimension can be incorporated into clinical practice Anarchism in Latin America Ángel J. Cappelletti, 2018-02-13

The available material in English discussing Latin American anarchism tends to be fragmentary country specific or focused on single individuals This new translation of Angel Cappelletti's wide ranging country by country historical overview of anarchism's social and political achievements in fourteen Latin American nations is the first book length regional history ever published in English With a foreword by the translator Angel J Cappelletti 1927 1995 was an Argentinian philosopher who taught at Simon Bolivar University in Venezuela He is the author of over forty works primarily investigating philosophy and anarchism Gabriel Palmer Fernandez is Distinguished Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies at Youngstown State University Until the Rulers Obey Clifton Ross, Marcy Rein, 2014-02-15

Until the Rulers Obey brings together voices from the movements behind the wave of change that swept Latin America at the turn of the twenty first century These movements have galvanized long silent or silenced sectors of society indigenous people campesinos students the LGBT community the unemployed and all those left out of the promised utopia of a globalized economy They have deployed a wide range of strategies and actions sometimes building schools or clinics sometimes occupying factories or fields sometimes building and occupying political parties to take the reins of the state and sometimes resisting government policies in order to protect their newfound power in community This unique collection of interviews features five dozen leaders and grassroots activists from fifteen countries presenting their work and debating pressing questions of power organizational forms and relations with the state They have mobilized on a wide range of issues fighting against mines and agribusiness and for living space rural and urban for social space won through recognition of language culture and equal participation for community and environmental survival The book is organized in chapters by country with each chapter introduced by a solidarity activist writer or academic with deep knowledge of the place This indispensable compilation of primary source material gives participants students and observers of social movements a chance to learn from their experience Contributors include ACOGUATE Luis Ballesteros Marc Becker Margi Clarke Benjamin Dangl Mar Daza Mickey Ellinger Michael Fox J Heyward Raphael Hoetmer Hilary Klein Diego Benegas Loyo Courtney Martinez Chuck Morse Mario A Murillo Phil Neff Fabola Ortiz dos Santos Hernán Ovi a Margot Pepper Adrienne Pine Marcy Rein Christy Rodgers Clifton Ross Susan Spronk Marie Trigona Jeffery R Webber and Ral Zibechi Censored 2015 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, Project Censored, 2014-10-07

Every year since 1976 Project Censored our nation's oldest news monitoring group a university wide project at Sonoma State University founded by Carl Jensen directed for many years by Peter Phillips and now under the leadership of Mickey Huff has produced a Top 25 list of underreported news stories and a book Censored dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship A perennial favorite of booksellers teachers and readers everywhere Censored is one of the strongest life signs of our current collective desire to get the news we citizens need despite what Big Media tells us Voices of Latin America Tom Gatehouse, 2019 Power and Popular Protest Manuel
