Unwind Neal Shusterman Teaching Guide:

Teaching Girls on Fire Sarah Hentges, Sean P. Connors, 2020-05-19 The rise of YA dystopian literature has seen an explosion of female protagonists who are stirring young people's interest in social and political topics awakening their civic imagination and inspiring them to work for change These Girls on Fire are intersectional and multidimensional characters They are leaders in their communities and they challenge injustice and limited representations The Girl on Fire fights for herself and for those who are oppressed voiceless or powerless She is the hope for our shared future This collection of new essays brings together teachers and students from a variety of educational contexts to explore how to harness the cultural power of the Girl on Fire as we educate real world students Each essay provides both theoretical foundations as well as practical hands on teaching tools that can be used with diverse groups of students in formal as well as informal educational settings This volume challenges readers to realize the symbolic power the Girl on Fire has to raise consciousness and inform action and to keep that fire burning

Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, 2012-03-15 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents More importantly literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads smart insightful and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents Hayn Kaplan and their contributors address a wide range of topics how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements engaging disenfranchised readers pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen
