International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink, George W. Noblit, 2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

Handbook of Research on Field-Based Teacher Education Hodges, Thomas E., Baum, Angela C., 2018-10-26 Teacher education is an evolving field with multiple pathways towards teacher certification Due to an increasing emphasis on the benefits of field based learning teachers can now take alternative certification pathways to become teachers The Handbook of Research on Field Based Teacher Education is a pivotal reference source that combines field based components with traditional programs creating clinical experiences and on the job learning opportunities to further enrich teacher education While highlighting topics such as certification design preparation programs and residency models this publication explores theories of teaching and learning through collaborative efforts in pre Kindergarten through grade 12 settings This book is ideally designed for teacher education practitioners and researchers invested in the policies and practices of educational design Teaching Authentic Language Arts in a Test-Driven Era Arthur T. Costigan,2010-11-01 Most pre service education students are enthusiastic about the progressive constructivist and student centered theory and practice advocated in many teacher education programs and by the National Council of Teachers of English Yet in actual day to day practice teachers often have trouble thinking of ways in which such student centered and constructivist practices in literacy instruction can be implemented in classrooms which are increasingly driven by high stakes tests increased accountability and mandated and even teacher proof scripted curricula Teaching Authentic Language Arts in a Test Driven Era provides a powerful and much needed counterargument to the assumption that test driven curricula preclude meaningful instruction and authentic student engagement within a Language Arts curriculum Providing teachers with the theoretical stances and pedagogical tools to develop a Language Arts practice which can be personally rewarding as well as beneficial to students Teaching Authentic Language Arts in a Test Driven Era empowers teachers to be effective even within the confines of a testing and accountability driven curriculum Taboo ,2003

Teacher Education Programs and Online Learning Tools: Innovations in Teacher Preparation Hartshorne, Richard,Heafner, Tina L.,Petty, Teresa,2012-07-31 While online learning has become pervasive in many fields in higher education it has been adopted somewhat slower in teacher education In addition more research is needed to empirically evaluate the effectiveness of online education in teacher preparation Teacher Education Programs and Online Learning Tools Innovations in Teacher Preparation presents information about current online practices and research in teacher education programs and explores the opportunities methods and issues surrounding technologically innovative opportunities in teacher preparation It presents empirical evidence of teacher candidate learning and assessment in the context of various online aspects of teacher licensure The Education of Black Males in a 'Post-Racial' World Anthony L. Brown,Jamel K. Donnor,2013-09-13 The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education Metropedagogy ,2006-01-01 What might it mean to develop a rigorous just and practical urban education Such a question takes on new importance in the middle of the first decade of the twenty first century as urban educators find themselves besieged with test driven standardized curricula promoted in the name of fairness educational excellence and egalitarianism Those who promote these standardized curricula fail to account for the unique situations and needs of particular urban students When an urban curriculum is standardized the students suffering from the effects of poverty racial discrimination and other problems are less likely to receive the specific pedagogical help they need to overcome the effects of such impediments Such students have special needs Teachers need the curricular freedom the professional respect to address these special requirements Metropedagogy constructed as a critical pedagogy for urban education addresses these concerns This book will be very useful as a text in urban education at the graduate and the undergraduate level

Education and Poverty in Affluent Countries Carlo Raffo, Alan Dyson, Helen Gunter, Dave Hall, Lisa Jones, Afroditi Kalambouka, 2009-12-04 For the first time researchers policymakers and practitioners across the world will have access to a comprehensive mapping of research evidence and policy strategies about education and poverty in affluent countries Although there is widespread agreement that poverty and poor educational outcomes are related there are competing explanations as to why that should be the case This is a major problem for practitioners policy makers and researchers who are looking for pointers to action or straightforward ways of understanding an issue that troubles education systems across the world This unique book brings scholarship and analysis from some of the most influential researchers and writers on education and poverty within one text The authors provide a synthesising framework that will help researchers and policy makers to examine future educational policy in a holistic and comprehensive fashion

African-Centered Pedagogy Peter C. Murrell Jr., 2012-02-01 What can teachers administrators families and communities do to create schools that provide rich learning experiences for African American children Based on a critical reinterpretation of several key educational frameworks African Centered Pedagogy is a practical guide to accomplished teaching Murrell suggests integrating the historical cultural political and developmental considerations of the African American experience into a unified system of instruction bringing to light those practices that already exist and linking them to contemporary ideas and innovations that concern effective practice in African American communities This is then applied through a case study analysis of a school seeking to incorporate the unified theory and embrace African centered practice Murrell argues that key educational frameworks although currently ineffective with African American children hold promise if reinterpreted
