

SERE Survival Handbook

A collection of survival tools is arranged on a dark wooden surface. In the center is a round compass with a black casing and a white face, showing cardinal directions (N, S, E, W) in green. To its right is a black flashlight with a textured grip. In the foreground, a large, dark knife with a curved blade lies horizontally. To the left of the compass is a coiled piece of thick, light-colored rope with red flecks. A metal carabiner is attached to the rope. In the background, a larger, more complex survival tool, possibly a multi-tool or a specialized compass, is partially visible.
