Sustained by Love thru the Wars Hi Dong Chai, 2023-02-09 I hate war War kills War maims War orphans And it leaves a deep scar not only on the land that will take years to heal but also in the hearts of those who are affected by the war I am one of those who carry a deep emotional wound to this day more than sixty years later During World War II under Japan my father was imprisoned because he was a Christian minister who refused to bow down to the picture of the Japanese emperor My elder brother volunteered to join the Japanese military in the hope of having his father released from prison He left home as a vibrant fifteen year old boy and returned home as a worn out injured eighteen year old man after the war he died a year later During the Korean War two North Korean officers came to my house and took my father away because he was a Christian minister He never returned Sustained by Love thru the Wars is a story of love sacrifice faith and suffering all wrapped in one package The heroine in the story is my mother as seen by her youngest son Mother prayed without ceasing Through her unceasing prayers she was able to walk through the dark tunnel of trials and tribulations and lead us onward with love grace and absolute faith in God

Richmond,2000 This is the third and final volume in the trilogy by Colin Richmond on the Paston family in the 15th century completing the sequence which began with The First Phase and continued with Fastolf's Will This volume deals with the later years of the century and those topics and themes which arise at that point in the family's history The principal characters are John Paston II his younger brother John Paston III and their mother Margaret Paston Richmond deals with a variety of issues some of which have arisen in previous volumes and attempts some judgements on the role of the English gentry in the later middle ages Dryden's Final Poetic Mode Cedric D. Reverand II,2016-11-11 Two months before he died Dryden published a collection of verse translations and original poetry Fables Ancient and Modern the work for which he was most admired throughout the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Cedric Reverand argues that Fables which has for the most part escaped modern scrutiny embodies a purposeful subversive strategy and constitutes a new poetic mode that emerged when the laureate public spokesman for king and country lost his official post and became an outcast a minority voice In Dryden's Final Poetic Mode Reverand focuses on Dryden's characteristic concerns love and war power and kingship the heroic code the Christian ideal tracing how Dryden assembles informing ideals and yet dissolves them as well By examining Dryden's treatment of familiar issues Reverand demonstrates that this final poetic mode is not discontinuous with the earlier poetry bill is a further development a reevaluation of the principles that sustained the poet throughout his career Fables expresses Dryden's personal experience dealing with a changed and changing world With the values he cherished crumbling he is trapped into trying to reconcile the irreconcilable His book reveals the fragility of various systems of value and the futility of discovering abiding ideals in a universe of perpetual flux but it also reveals a poet who actively pursues meaning rather than surrendering to despair It is this attempt to accommodate to a changing subversive world that Reverend asserts is the impulse behind Fables and the central issue of Dryden s life in the 1690s Dryden s Final Poetic Mode will interest students and scholars of seventeenth and eighteenth century British literature Vietnam Bulletin , 1970
