Junctures in Women's Leadership: Social Movements Mary K. Trigg, Alison R. Bernstein, 2016-05-23 2016 Choice Outstanding Academic Title From Eleanor Roosevelt to feminist icon Gloria Steinem to HIV AIDS activist Dazon Dixon Diallo women have assumed leadership roles in struggles for social justice How did these remarkable women ascend to positions of influence And once in power what leadership strategies did they use to deal with various challenges Junctures in Women's Leadership: Social Movements explores these questions by introducing twelve women who have spearheaded a wide array of social movements that span the 1940s to the present working for indigenous peoples rights gender equality reproductive rights labor advocacy environmental justice and other causes The women profiled here work in a variety of arenas across the globe Planned Parenthood CEO Cecile Richards New York City labor organizer Bhairavi Desai women's rights leader Charlotte Bunch feminist poet Audre Lorde civil rights activists Daisy Bates and Aileen Clarke Hernandez Kenyan environmental activist Wangari Maathai Nicaraguan revolutionary Mirna Cunningham and South African public prosecutor Thuli Madonsela What unites them all is the way these women made sacrifices asked critical questions challenged injustice and exhibited the will to act in the face of often harsh criticism and violence The case studies in Junctures in Women's Leadership: Social Movements demonstrate the diversity of ways that women around the world have practiced leadership in many instances overcoming rigid cultural expectations about gender Moreover the cases provide a unique window into the ways that women leaders make decisions at moments of struggle and historical change Gendering Post-1945 German

History Karen Hagemann, Donna Harsch, Friederike Brühöfener, 2019-04-02 Although entanglement has become a keyword in recent German history scholarship entangled studies of the postwar era have largely limited their scope to politics and economics across the two Germanys while giving short shrift to social and cultural phenomena like gender At the same time historians of gender in Germany have tended to treat East and West Germany in isolation with little attention paid to intersections and interrelationships between the two countries This groundbreaking collection synthesizes the perspectives of entangled history and gender studies bringing together established as well as upcoming scholars to investigate the ways in which East and West German gender relations were culturally socially and politically intertwined Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, 2017-07-14 Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora addresses the question of to what extent the history of gender in Africa is appropriately inscribed in narratives of power patriarchy migration identity and women and men s subjection emasculation and empowerment The book weaves together compelling narratives about women men and gender relations in Africa and the African Diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives with a view to advancing original ways of understanding these subjects The chapters achieve three things first they deliberately target long held but erroneous notions about patriarchy power gender migration and masculinity in Africa and of the African Diaspora vigorously contesting these and debunking them second they unearth previously marginalized and little known histories depicting the dynamics of gender and power in places ranging from Angola to Arabia to America and in different time periods decidedly gendering the previously male dominated discourse and third they ultimately aim to re write the stories of women and gender relations in Africa and in the African Diaspora As such this work is an important read for scholars of African history gender and the African Diaspora This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies Diaspora Studies Gender and History "After Mecca" Cheryl Clarke, 2005 In After Mecca Cheryl Clarke explores the relationship between the Black Arts Movement and black women writers of the period Poems by Gwendolyn Brooks Ntozake Shange Audre Lorde Nikki Giovanni Sonia Sanchez Jayne Cortez Alice Walker and others chart the emergence of a new and distinct black poetry and its relationship to the black community s struggle for rights and liberation Clarke also traces the contributions of these poets to the development of feminism and lesbian feminism and the legacy they left for others to build on Blackness and Disability Christopher M. Bell, 2012-02-01 Disability Studies diverge from the medical model of disability which argues that disabled subjects can and should be fixed to view disability as socially constructed much in the same way other identities are The work of reading black and disabled bodies is not only recovery work but work that requires a willingness to deconstruct the systems that would keep those bodies in separate spheres This pivotal volume uncovers the misrepresentations of black disabled bodies and demonstrates how those bodies transform systems and culture Drawing on key themes in Disability Studies and African American Studies these collected essays complement one another in interesting and dynamic ways to forge connections across genres and chronotopes an invitation to keep blackness and disability in conversation With an analysis of disability as a result of war studies of cognitive impairment and slavery in fiction representations of slavery and violence in photography deconstructions of illness cancer and AIDS narratives comparative analyses of black and Latina o and black and African subjects analysis of treatments of disability in hip hop and commentary on disability blackness and war this volume shows that the historical lines of demarcation in this field are permeable and should be challenged Super Gay Poems Stephanie Burt,2025 Esteemed scholar poet and critic Stephanie Burt anthologizes five decades of verse for and by queer Americans Interpreted by Burt the poems of Frank O Hara Audre Lorde Judy Grahn James Merrill Thom Gunn Jackie Kay Adrienne Rich Chen Chen The Cyborg Jillian Weise and others trace a flourishing of queer life from Stonewall to today Black Feminist Mothering in 21st Century Literature Nicole Carr,2025-05-23 Black feminist mothering can birth new worlds As today s world becomes increasingly hostile with the rising cost of food coupled with global warming s devastating impact we are in need of a feminism bold enough to imagine new pathways for survival Black feminist mothering may well be the remedy This volume positions Black feminist mothering as much more than a biological or caregiving role Building on key Black feminist tenets Carr examines Black women s maternal labors as a practice and proclamation for mothering ourselves tending to each other and nourishing our communities Far too often Black women s maternal intellectual and political labors are recognized only in service to white supremacist capitalism Mammy Breeder Welfare queen This text counters these dehumanizing iconographies to focus instead on the Black maternal s imaginative possibilities Not only does Carr address Black women s resistance to white supremacist power plays but she also attends to Black heteropatriarchy and the burdens racial solidarity imposes on Black women The Black maternal Carr argues is a cradle for Black revolution As Assata Shakur famously declared We are pregnant with freedom When the Center Is on Fire Diane Sue Harriford,Becky W. Thompson,2021 In this lively and provocative book two feminist public sociologists turn to classical social thinkers W E B Du Bois Max Weber Karl Marx and mile Durkheim to understand a series of twenty first century social traumas including the massacre at Columbine High School the 9 11 attacks the torture at Abu Ghraib prison and Hurricane Katrina Each event was overwhelming in its own right while the relentless pace at which they occurred made it nearly impossible to absorb and interpret them in any but the most superficial ways Yet each uncovered social problems that cry out for our understanding and remediation In When the Center Is on Fire Becky Thompson and Diane Harriford assert that classical social theorists grappled with the human condition in ways that remain profoundly relevant They show for example that the loss of double consciousness that Du Bois identified in African Americans enabled political elites to turn a blind eye to the poverty and vulnerability of many of New Orleans s citizens The authors compelling sometimes irreverent often searing interpretations make this book essential reading for students activists generations X Y and Z and everybody bored by the 6 o clock news

The Heritage Series of Black Poetry, 1962-1975 Lauri Ramey,2016-03-03 In 1962 the Heritage Series of Black Poetry

founded and edited by Paul Breman published Robert Hayden's A Ballad of Remembrance. By 1975 the Series had published 27 volumes by some of the twentieth century's most important and influential poets. As elaborated in Lauri Ramey's extensive scholarly introduction, this innovative volume has dual purposes: To provide primary sources that recover the history and legacy of this groundbreaking publishing venture and to serve as a research companion for scholars working on the Series and on twentieth century black poetry. Never before published primary materials include Paul Breman's memoir retrospectives by several of the poets published in the Series, a photo documentary of W. E. B. Du Bois's 1958 visit to The Netherlands, poems by poets represented in the Series, and scholarly essays. Also included are bibliographies of the Heritage poets and of the Heritage Press Archives at the Chicago Public Library. This reference work is an essential resource for scholars working in the fields of black poetry, transatlantic studies, and twentieth century book history.

African American Political Thought Melvin L. Rogers, Jack Turner, 2024-05-31 African American Political Thought offers an unprecedented philosophical history of thinkers from the African American community and African diaspora who have addressed the central issues of political life: democracy, race, violence, liberation, solidarity, and mass political action. Melvin L. Rogers and Jack Turner have brought together leading scholars to reflect on individual intellectuals from the past four centuries, developing their list with an expansive approach to political expression. The collected essays consider such figures as Martin Delany, Ida B. Wells, W. E. B. Du Bois, James Baldwin, Toni Morrison, and Audre Lorde, whose works are addressed by scholars such as Farah Jasmine Griffin, Robert Gooding Williams, Michael Dawson, Nick Bromell, Neil Roberts, and Lawrie Balfour. While African American political thought is inextricable from the historical movement of American political thought, this volume stresses the individuality of Black thinkers, the transnational and diasporic consciousness, and how individual speakers and writers draw on various traditions simultaneously to broaden our conception of African American political ideas. This landmark volume gives us the opportunity to tap into the myriad and nuanced political theories central to Black life. In doing so, African American Political Thought: A Collected History transforms how we understand the past and future of political thinking in the West.

Proud Heritage Chuck Stewart, 2014-12-16 This groundbreaking three volume reference traces the roots and development of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) rights and issues in the United States from the pre-colonial period to the present day. With the social, religious, and political stigmas attached to alternative lifestyles throughout history, most homosexuals, bisexuals, and transgender people lived covertly for much of if not all of their lives. Likewise, the narrative of our country excludes the contributions, struggles, and historical achievements of this group. This revealing, chronologically arranged reference work uncovers the rich story of the LGBT community in the United States and discusses the politics, culture, and issues affecting it since the early 17th century. Author Chuck Stewart traces the evolution of LGBT issues as part of our nation's shared cultural past and modern day experience. Volume 1 focuses on the origins of the movement with the founding of Jamestown in 1607 through the 1970s and the beginning of gay rights activism in the United States. Volume 2 spans the 1980s and the AIDs pandemic through the present day issues of marriage equality Volume 3 gives a concise review of this society in each of the 50 states the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico

Death beyond Disavowal Grace Kyungwon Hong, 2015-10-01

Death beyond Disavowal utilizes difference as theorized by women of color feminists to analyze works of cultural production by people of color as expressing a powerful antidote to the erasures of contemporary neoliberalism According to Grace Kyungwon Hong neoliberalism is first and foremost a structure of disavowal enacted as a reaction to the successes of the movements for decolonization desegregation and liberation of the post World War II era It emphasizes the selective and uneven affirmation and incorporation of subjects and ideas that were formerly categorically marginalized particularly through invitation into reproductive respectability It does so in order to suggest that racial gendered and sexualized violence and inequity are conditions of the past rather than the foundations of contemporary neoliberalism s exacerbation of premature death Neoliberal ideologies hold out the promise of protection from premature death in exchange for complicity with this pretense In Audre Lorde s Sister Outsider Cherr e Moraga s The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Oscar Zeta Acosta s The Revolt of the Cockroach People Ana Castillo s So Far from God Gayl Jones s Corregidora Isaac Julien s Looking for Langston Inge Blackman s B D Women Rodney Evans s Brother to Brother and the work of the late Barbara Christian Death beyond Disavowal finds the memories of death and precarity that neoliberal ideologies attempt to erase Hong posits cultural production as a compelling rejoinder to neoliberalism s violences She situates women of color feminism often dismissed as narrow or limited in its effect as a potent diagnosis of and alternative to such violences And she argues for the importance of women of color feminism to any critical engagement with contemporary neoliberalism
