Waters Of Siloe Harvest Or Hbj :

Journey Into Depth Mary Wolff-Salin, 2005 Journey into Depth is about the experience of initiation as it plays itself out in two domains the monastic and the training to become a Jungian psychoanalyst The very disparateness of these fields from an external point of view highlights the deeper level of similarity in their initiatory experiences A few major anthropological guidelines concerning initiation provide a framework of reflection as to what is really going on when a person passes through this kind of adult rite of passage Conclusions as to the human importance of such experiences follow with special emphasis on their spiritual consequences in terms of growth BOOK JACKET National Union Catalog, 1982 ,1983 Thomas Merton Marquita Breit, Robert E. Daggy, 1986 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1992 National Union Catalog ,1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases Praying John Piippo, 2016-04-14 Every follower of Jesus is called to have a praying life But many confess that they are too busy to pray This book is a record of observations experiences reflections and biblical and theological conclusions written by a busy pastor who discovered praying as a conversation with God that has lasted for forty years It is also a challenge to pray and a call to a praying lifestyle The conviction of the author is that what the Church most needs today is to recover praying as a relationship with God and not as a duty to God This book will inspire you to experience prayer not as something we have to do but as something we cannot do without Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation More Than Silence Patricia A. Burton, 2008-05-30 More Than Silence A Bibliography of Thomas Merton is not only one of the most comprehensive bibliographies on Merton but is also the first bibliography on Merton in more than 20 years The Waters of Siloe Thomas Merton, 1979-10-09 From the author of The Seven Storey Mountain this book looks at an order of Catholic monks dating back to eleventh century France The word Trappist has become synonymous with ascetic and definitely indicates a monk who leads a very hard life But Penance and asceticism are not ends in themselves If monks never succeeded in being more than pious athletes they do not fulfill their purpose in the Church If you want to understand why the monks lead the life they do you will have to ask first of all What is their aim In his bestselling memoir The Seven Storey Mountain Catholic poet theologian and mystic Thomas Merton chronicled his journey to becoming a Cistercian monk of the Abbey of Gethsemani Kentucky In The Waters of Siloe he provides an enlightening account of the Cistercian Order better known as the Trappists With clarity and wisdom Merton explores the history of the Cistercian Order from its founding in 1098 its development and waning and the seventeenth century reforms by the Abb de Ranc which began the second flowering that continues today Throughout Merton illuminates the purposes of monasticism and its surprising resurgence in America and elsewhere Only Thomas Merton could have written single handed this history of Trappist monks for it is a work of diverse gifts and skill an ardent collaboration of scholar and story teller priest and poet The New York Times Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1982 American Book Publishing Record ,1979 Religious Books, 1876-1982 ,1983 Publishers Trade List Annual, 1992 ,1992
