Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college. Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms. It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction. Curating a Literacy Life William Kist, 2022 Curating a Literacy Life spotlights the idea of curation as a process for inspiring student-centered learning with digital media. Young people need to learn to become purposeful collectors and thus curators of their own learning. In this book, Kist shows educators how to empower students as they make sense of all the books, videos, websites, and social media they access. Packed with ideas and activities developed over time in a high school setting, the book presents a model for learning to learn a way of processing, making meaning, and repurposing all the texts around us. Kist demonstrates how curating can happen no matter where the teaching and learning are taking place, whether virtually or face-to-face in school or out of school. Using smartphones, a Netflix account, and access to a variety of YA canonical and media texts, this resource provides a foundation for becoming lifelong scholars and artists. Curating a Literacy Life is for both teachers and parents who are interested in helping young people harness, manage, and learn from the multiple messages and texts they encounter every day. Book Features: A powerful model to help teens make sense of and even repurpose the texts they encounter daily. Ideas for making use of digital media in ways that are meaningful to today's students. Strategies for bridging the divide between in-school and out-of-school literacies. Activities developed during the author's years as an instructional coach at Cleveland's Glenville High School. Welcome to Teaching Multilingual Learners! Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Valentina Gonzalez, 2025-01-07 Engage. Empower. Educate. Unleash the Potential of Multilingual Learners. What's your why for being a teacher? Unlike other professionals, teachers often have strong reasons for why they teach and a clear sense of purpose. Acknowledging and understanding this purpose helps educators to not just do what they do but do it well. This illustrated guide was designed for all classroom teachers to emphasize the unique challenges and opportunities that arise in multilingual learner education. Using Simon Sinek's Golden Circle theory to understand and elevate that sense of purpose, the book is organized into three parts: the why, the how, and the what of teaching multilingual learners. You will learn: The benefits and goals of a multilingual education. How to design learning experiences for multilingual learners and how to respond when students are not learning. Culturally inclusive pedagogy and how it positively supports the identities of your students. How to foster oral language skills, build vocabulary, and increase students word knowledge How to engage families and caregivers and create a sense of belonging in your classroom And so much more With a clear understanding of the research based tools techniques and instructional strategies described and illustrated in the book a solid sense of purpose and a dash of grace for you and your multilingual learners you will be well on your way to creating productive and positive learning opportunities that meet the best interests of all students families educators and the community
