The Anthropologist as Writer Helena Wulff, 2016-03-01 Writing is crucial to anthropology but which genres are anthropologists expected to master in the 21st century This book explores how anthropological writing shapes the intellectual content of the discipline and academic careers First chapters identify the different writing genres and contexts anthropologists actually engage with Second this book argues for the usefulness and necessity of taking seriously the idea of writing as a craft and of writing across and within genres in new ways Although academic writing is an anthropologist s primary genre they also write in many others from drafting administrative texts and filing reports to composing ethnographically inspired journalism and fiction Portfolio to Go Allan D. Peterkin,2016-11-14 Preparing a learning portfolio has become a mandatory part of the course work in most clinical professions Students and educators alike sometimes complain that these mandatory assignments become repetitive and uninspired However we all need to be able to speak and write clearly as we work with our colleagues students and those we care for In Portfolio To Go Allan D Peterkin insists that reflective capacity critical thinking creative expression and narrative competence are attributes that should be developed in every health professional regardless of the discipline or specialty Trainees will find over 1000 prompts organized under themes highly relevant to students and educators including those not formally addressed in class such as coping with uncertainty and ambiguity team conflict and resilience through good self care Practical tips for writing effectively and for discussing and evaluating narratives in a helpful respective manner are provided throughout Peterkin is a pioneer in emphasizing patient centred humanistic care and Portfolio To Go will help to train and develop more reflective practitioners Where Have I Been All My Life? Cheryl Rice,2025-07-30 Where Have I Been All My Life is a compelling memoir recounting one woman s journey through grief and a profound feeling of unworthiness to wholeness and healing It begins with the chillingly sudden death of Rice s mother and is followed by her foray into the center of mourning With wisdom grace and humor Rice recounts the grief games she plays in an effort to resurrect her mother her efforts to get her therapist who she falls desperately in love with to run away with her and the transformation of her husband from fantasy man to ordinary guy to superhero In the process she experiences aching revelations about her family and her past and realizes what she must leave behind and what she can carry forward with her
