Writing From Within A Guide To Creativity And Life Story Writing:

Writing from Within Bernard Selling, 1997-06 Telling one's life stories can be a voyage of self discovery freeing up images and thoughts that have long remained hidden Using the techniques of Writing From Within anyone can create vivid autobiographical stories and life narratives For everyone interested in writing this program enables them to explore their lives rediscover forgotten experiences and find out hidden truths about themselves their parents and their family histories

Writing from Within: The Next Generation Bernard Selling, 2012-05-08 Everybody has something to say In an age when Twitter blogs and Tumblrs give millions the chance to write whatever is on their minds it seems that we're finding plenty of avenues in which to share it How then do we write what is worth saying How do we record our important memories so they'll be remembered How do we tell our personal stories the way they deserve to be told In keeping with successful earlier editions of Writing from Within Selling has stressed the idea that personal writing is a means to personal understanding Learning to write well starts with the subjects we know the best ourselves To write life stories writers explore vivid memories and re-engage with the perspectives of their younger selves They learn to harness their inner critics and deal with fear They use their creative drive to remember details from their most significant memories The process of life story writing is as much one of self discovery as it is one of nostalgia These emotional connections to memories provide the backbone for Selling's writing instruction In this 25th anniversary edition of Writing from Within the original lessons of life story writing are included and significantly expanded upon Readers are given guidance on finding their earliest memories and on remembering details vividly Writing instruction is offered to accompany this process and ensure that readers' life stories are full of clear accurate memories The core focus of the book is on unlocking memories and writing them as life stories However this Anniversary edition also provides substantial new material on Story pacing techniques Strategies for subtly adding exposition and denouement Revealing and unraveling character Writing stories within stories Developing unique voices within the same story Researching and writing family histories Expanding life story writing into novels or screenplays Advanced steps like creating visual motifs employing sub text and separating the writer from the central character Draft samples will show readers how their life stories will grow using the Writing from Within method Excerpts from past students' life stories show the potential of the method Personal notes to readers keep them on track and their goals in perspective Writing from Within: The Next Generation invites readers to find their voices and helps them along the way to doing so As much a tool for personal reflection as a guide to writing instruction the book represents a comprehensive discussion of the creative process Writers new and old will write with more skill understand themselves and their characters better and be able to turn their life experiences into art So learn to harness your inner critic Construct your own writing process Open the door to your past Give the characters voices Breathe some life into your story and leave something so future generations can get to know you

Creative Writing in Post-Secondary Education Lisa Martin, 2025-02-20 A blend of memoir and scholarly review this book explores the kinds of thinking creative writing as a distinctly practical subject makes possible within post secondary education Taking the idea that creative writing should be grounded in practice Lisa Martin explores how the nature of the subject gives permission to think specifically locally from one s own position and in a necessarily limited way without having one's thinking discounted as lacking rigour as a result. Modelling the deep and essential connection between practice and research in the field, this book considers post-secondary creative writing in its three key aspects: artistic practice, pedagogical practice, and practice-led research in order to articulate the distinctive contributions creative writing makes to what thinking means and whose thinking gets included. Drawing on Martin's own artistic practice as well as more than a decade of pedagogical experience in creative writing, this book braids together disciplinary history, research-informed autobiographical analysis of artistic practice and pedagogy, and scholarly research in adjacent fields such as creativity studies and educational psychology. Connecting creative writing's central commitment to artistic practice and local material embodied thinking with the development of learner-centred pedagogies, Creative Writing in Post-Secondary Education is timely, important, and will spark spirited discussion within a debate that has been simmering since the inception of creative writing.

Writing Creative Non-Fiction Kapka Kassabova, John I MacArtney, Katie Karnehm, Rodge Glass, Helen Pleasance, Rebecca Gordon Stewart, Rhiannon Marks, Jo Collinson Scott, Erin Soros, Elizabeth Reeder, 2015-03-02

Writers of creative non-fiction are often expected to be able to recreate reality to deal with or even access a singular truth. But the author, like any human, is not an automaton remotely tasked with capturing a life or an event. Whether we tell stories and understand them as fiction or non-fiction, or whether we draw away from these classifications, writers craft and shape writing. All writing. No experience exists on a flat plane, and recounting or interpreting events will always involve some element of artistic manipulation. Every instance, exchange, discussion, event is open to multiple interpretations and can be described in many ways, all of which are potentially truthful.

Writing Creative Non-Fiction: Determining the Form contains essays and original writing from novelists, poets, songwriters, musicians, and academics. The book covers topics that range from explorations of the role of the author, definitions and representations of the form, self and illness, to the spectral elements of non-fiction and its role in historical narratives. The essays included in this volume address everything from memoir, biography, and autobiography to a discussion of musical approaches to criticism and a non-fiction interview. The book identifies key writers including Christopher Isherwood, David Shields, B.S. Johnson, James Frey, Sine Seierstad, John D. Agata, W.G. Sebald, Jonathan Coe, Hilary Mantel, James Kelman, Liz Lochhead, and Arthur Frank, and is essential reading for students, researchers, and writers of creative non-fiction.
