Muth, 2011-01-06 With its process oriented rhetoric provocative thematic reader up to date research manual and comprehensive handbook The Bedford Guide for College Writers gives your students the tools they need to succeed as writers all in one book Each of the book s four main components has been carefully developed to provide an engaging well coordinated guide for student writers This edition s new more open design and sharper focus on active learning do even more to help students develop transferable skills The Bedford Guide for College Writers prepares students to be the confident resourceful and independent writers they will need to be

Report Writing for Police Officers (2nd ed.) Wayne L. Davis, Ph.D., 2013-11 This book is designed for criminal justice instructors It requires them to help students work through the various police reports The reports are intentionally left incomplete to require students to work through them Some reports may seem to ask confusing questions which may lead to unreliable responses This is to be used as a lesson unreliable responses create statistics that are not valid Managers need to improve the forms in order to obtain valid data This book first discusses communication theory and how it applies to police officers and prosecutors in the courtroom Information presented in the courtroom by police officers has a significant impact upon the jurors Indeed police officers communicate both verbally and nonverbally in the courtroom and this affects their credibility on the stand Furthermore by employing persuasion theories prosecutors can align the officers testimonies to the jurors particular communication preference Second this book discusses truth as it relates to probable cause and beyond reasonable doubt Finally because report writing is a significant part of police work this book presents a variety of police forms that will engage students in written communication

The SAGE Guide to Writing in Corrections Steven Hougland, Jennifer M. Allen, 2019-12-02 As part of the SAGE Guide to Writing series The SAGE Guide to Writing in Corrections 1e by Steven Hougland and Jennifer Allen focuses on teaching students how to write in the academic setting while introducing them to a number of other professional writings specific to the correctional profession such as the pre sentence investigation report contact sheets court status reports incident reports rehabilitation and therapy Covering correctional institutions as well as community corrections the goal is to interweave professional and technical writing academic writing and information literacy with the result being a stronger more confident report writer and student in corrections This text will be a concise supplemental writing book in courses focused on writing in the criminal justice discipline report writing or in introductory corrections courses It is part of a series of books on this topic that will span criminal justice policing corrections and research methods

Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Larry Miller, John Whitehead, 2017-09-14 The criminal justice process is dependent on accurate documentation Criminal justice professionals can spend 50 75 percent of their time writing administrative and research reports The information provided in these reports is crucial to the functioning of our system of justice Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Sixth Edition provides practical guidance with specific writing samples and guidelines for providing strong reports Most law enforcement security corrections and probation and parole officers have not had adequate training in how to provide well written accurate brief and complete reports Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals covers everything officers need to learn from basic English grammar to the difficult but often ignored problem of creating documentation that will hold up in court This new edition includes updates to reference materials and citations as well as further supporting examples and new procedures in digital and electronic report writing
