Writings Against Power And Death:

A British Anarchist Tradition Carissa Honeywell, 2011-05-12 The Power of Death Maria-José Blanco, Ricarda Vidal, 2014-10-01 The social and cultural changes of the last century have transformed death from an everyday fact to something hidden from view Shifting between the practical and the theoretical the professional and the intimate the real and the fictitious this collection of essays explores the continued power of death over our lives It examines the idea and experience of death from an interdisciplinary perspective including studies of changing burial customs throughout Europe an account of a dying party in the Netherlands examinations of the fascination with violent death in crime fiction and the phenomenon of serial killer art analyses of death and bereavement in poetry fiction and autobiography and a look at audience reactions to depictions of death on screen By studying and considering how death is thought about in the contemporary era we might restore the natural place it has in our lives Writing Against Death Susan Bainbrigge, 2005 Aims to re evaluate Simone de Beauvoir s extensive autobiographical oeuvre exploring its place in relation to the French autobiographical canon This study presents readings which engage critically with existentialism feminist theory and autobiography studies generally in particular focusing on the question of autothanatography Writing against the Curriculum Randi Gray Kristensen, Ryan M. Claycomb, 2009-11-05 Writing against the Curriculum responds to the growing popularity of Writing Across the Curriculum WAC and Writing in the Disciplines WID programs in universities and colleges across the United States Many of these schools employ both an Introduction to Writing course and a subsequent selection of writing intensive courses housed within academic departments thus simultaneously offering opportunities to subvert disciplinary knowledge production in the earlier course even as they reaffirm those divisions in their later requirements Written by administrators faculty and librarians at public and private institutions who teach traditional and online introductory and advanced writing classes the essays in Writing against the Curriculum argue that these introductory composition classrooms make excellent spaces to question disciplinarity through the study of rhetoric with an emphasis on critical thinking and curricular flexibility before students experience disciplinary enforcement most intensely in the advanced courses Thus this collection intervenes in current discourses of theory and practice in the related fields of composition and cultural studies because simultaneous attention to both fields enables both the activist enactment of cultural studies theoretical ambitions and the interrogation of the theoretical and political implications of composition practices The Global Politics of Power, Justice and Death Peter Anderson, 2005-07-15 A challenging yet readily accessible introduction to current global change which looks inter alia at the future of the state the environment war and global rivalries international political economy international law and the UN Collected Writings by John Nelson Darby Volume 2 John Nelson Darby, 2015-01-07 Contains Lectures on The Hopes of the Church of God Reflections upon the Prophetic Inquiry and the views advanced in it On Days signifying Years in prophetic language On the Extended Scope of Prophecy The Dispensation of the Kingdom of Heaven The Melchisedec

Priesthood of Christ A letter addressed to Parsonstown Evidence from Scripture of the passing away of the present dispensation Divine Mercy in the Church and towards Israel Notes on the Revelation The Purpose of God Reflections on the Death of a Porcupine and Other Essays D. H. Lawrence, 1988-01-29 Reflections on the Death of a Porcupine and Other Essays restores what Lawrence wrote Martin Luther as Comforter: Writings on Death Neil Leroux, 2007-06-30 What was Martin Luther's teaching regarding death and to what extent did his own fears of and experiences with death manifest themselves in his writings What influence did the medieval preoccupation with a good death have upon him How did Luther counsel those facing death to meet it with acceptance or resistance or both Using meticulous rhetorical analysis of select sermons pamphlets and letters of consolation this book examines how Luther offered comfort to those who were facing their own death or who were coming to terms with the death of loved ones Thus the book makes an important contribution to existing scholarship on Luther and the formation of an early modern Protestant ethos surrounding death bereavement and burial The Death of Omnipotence and Birth of Amipotence Thomas Jay Oord, 2023-04-27 Omnipotence is dead At least it should be It has no biblical support And it dies a death of a thousand qualifications in philosophy Those harmed and hurting wonder why an omnipotent God doesn't prevent pointless pain The problem of evil buries omnipotence six feet under But the death of omnipotence is not the death of God In this ground breaking book best selling and award winning author Thomas Jay Oord explains why omnipotence should be rejected But Oord offers a replacement amipotence the power of uncontrolling love If we think love shapes and guides God's power we make better sense of life And better sense of the Bible Amipotence explains why God doesn't prevent genuine evil and overcomes other obstacles to belief An amipotent Spirit empowers all that is loving true beautiful and good No book makes a bolder but more needed argument for why God is not all powerful In this book those who care about love scripture and logic find what they've been looking for Get a copy of The Death of Omnipotence and Birth of Amipotence Endorsements Omnipotence has long been considered a basic non negotiable characteristic of God But is it biblical And does it push us toward theological landmines that blow up faith In this book Oord with his typical gentle candor lays out the complex issues in clear and readable chunks In the end Oord points to the beauty and comfort of a God who is uncontrolling love Peter Enns professor of biblical studies at Eastern University author of Curveball Thomas Jay Oord challenges one of the most fundamental attributes of God omnipotence He discloses that a narrow view of God as Almighty is neither biblical nor adequately describes the God of Jesus Christ Oord offers a new view of God as amipotent The power of God is the power of love and the power of unconditional love is our strength Oord has made an important contribution to restoring the biblical God a God who is ever faithful in love not a power over us but the power beneath our wings Ilia Delio OSF Josephine C Connelly Endowed Chair in Theology Villanova University Omnipotence is widely believed to be one of the most important attributes of God In this book Thomas Jay Oord proposes a highly original and thought provoking thesis instead of omnipotent God should be considered amipotent This is an important book which can radically change the way we approach central problems in philosophy of religion and philosophical theology Yujin Nagasawa H G Wood Professor of the Philosophy of Religion University of Birmingham Finally God's love has been saved from God's control faithfully definitively attractively In this vibrantly accessible work Thomas Jay Oord puts to rest the demoralizing incoherent and by the way nonbiblical notion of controlling omnipotence used to justify endless injustice In its stead he unleashes omnipotence code for the power of love Its time has come preach it teach it live it Catherine Keller Drew Theological School and Author of Political Theology of Love This book provides a provocative argument that cannot be easily dismissed This is the kind of nuance that contemporary debates over models of God need to consider R T Mullins Professor of Philosophical Theology University of Lucerne Oord charts a path to theological freedom from the tyranny of an omnipotent God This book is theology at its best grounded in scripture rooted in love and engaged with brilliant and spirit-filled minds If you have found yourself rightfully unable to accept the horrifying implications of omnipotence but struggle to conceive of a of Death in Nineteenth-Century US Writing and Culture* Lucy Frank, 2018-01-18 From the famous deathbed scene of Harriet Beecher Stowe's Little Eva to Mark Twain's parodically morbid poetess Emmeline Grangerford a preoccupation with human finitude informs the texture of nineteenth-century US writing This collection traces the vicissitudes of this cultural preoccupation with the subject of death and examines how mortality served paradoxically as a site on which identity and subjectivity were productively rethought Contributors from North America and the United Kingdom representing the fields of literature theatre history and American studies analyze the sexual social and epistemological boundaries implicit in nineteenth-century America's obsession with death while also seeking to give a voice to the strategies by which these boundaries were interrogated and displaced Topics include race and gender-based investigations into the textual representation of death imaginative constructions and re-constructions of social practice with regard to loss and memorialisation and literary re-conceptualisations of death forced by personal and national trauma Krishna Sobti's Views on Literature and the Poetics of Writing Rosine-Alice Vuille, 2022-10-03 How does a writer discuss her creative process and her views on a writer's role in society How do her comments on writing relate to her works The Hindi writer Krishna Sobti 1925-2019 is known primarily as a novelist However she also extensively wrote about her views on the creative process the figure of the writer historical writing and the position of writers within the public sphere This study is the first to examine in detail the relationship between Sobti's views on poetics as exposed in her non-fictional texts and her own literary practice The writer's self-representation is analysed through her use of metaphors to explain her creative process Sobti's construction of the figure of the writer is then put in parallel with her idiosyncratic use of language as a representation of the heterogeneous voices of her characters and with her conception of literature as a space where time and memory can be held At the same time by delving into Sobti's position in the debate around women's writing especially through the creation of a male double the failed writer Hashmat and into her views on literature and politics this book also reflects on the literary debates of the post Independence Hindi literary sphere Prefaces and Writing Sampler Robert L. Perkins,2006 The International Kierkegaard Commentary For the first time in English the world community of scholars systematically assembled and presented the results of recent research in the vast literature of S ren Kierkegaard Based on the definitive English edition of Kierkegaard s works by Princeton University Press this series of commentaries addresses all the published texts of the influential Danish philosopher and theologian This is volume 9 10 in a series of commentaries based upon the definitive translations of Kierkegaard s writings published by Princeton University Press 1980ff The Pleasures of Death Arthur Flannigan Saint-Aubin,2020-12-09 The year 2019 marked the twenty fifth anniversary of the death of Kurt Cobain an artist whose music words and images continue to move millions of fans worldwide As the first academic study that provides a literary analysis of Cobain s creative writings Arthur Flannigan Saint Aubin s The Pleasures of Death Kurt Cobain s Masochistic and Melancholic Persona approaches the journals and songs crafted by Nirvana s iconic front man from the perspective of cultural theory and psychoanalytic aesthetics Drawing on critiques and reformulations of psychoanalytic theory by feminist queer and antiracist scholars Saint Aubin considers the literary means by which Cobain creates the persona of a young white heterosexual man who expresses masochistic and melancholic behaviors On the one hand this individual welcomes pain and humiliation as atonement for unpardonable sins on the other he experiences a profound sense of loss and grief seeking death as the ultimate act of pleasure The first person narrators and characters that populate Cobain s texts underscore the political and aesthetic repercussions of his art Cobain s distinctive version of grunge understood as a subculture a literary genre and a cultural practice represents a specific performance of race and gender one that facilitates an understanding of the self as part of a larger social order Saint Aubin approaches Cobain s writings independently of the artist s biography positioning these texts within the tradition of postmodern representations of masculinity in twentieth century American fiction while also suggesting connections to European Romantic traditions from the nineteenth century that postulate a relation between melancholy or depression and creativity In turn through Saint Aubin s elegant analysis Cobain s creative writings illuminate contradictions and inconsistencies within psychoanalytic theory itself concerning the intersection of masculinity masochism melancholy and the death drive By foregrounding Cobain s ability to challenge coextensive links between gender sexuality and race The Pleasures of Death reveals how the cultural politics and aesthetics of this tragic icon s works align with feminist strategies invite queer readings and perform antiracist critiques of American culture Heidegger on Death and Being Johannes Achill Niederhauser,2020-11-21 The book is the first detailed and full exegesis of the role of death in Heidegger s philosophy and provides a decisive answer to the question of being It is well known that Heidegger asked the question of being It is equally commonplace to assume that Heidegger failed to provide a proper answer to the question In this provocative new study Niederhauser argues that Heidegger gives a distinct response to the question of being and that the phenomenon of death is key to finding and understanding it The book offers challenging interpretations of crucial moments of Heidegger's philosophy such as aletheia the history of being time technology the fourfold mortality the meaning of existence the event and language Niederhauser makes the case that any reading of Heidegger that ignores death cannot fully understand those concepts The book argues that death is central to Heidegger's thinking path from the early 1920s until his late post war philosophy The book thus attempts to show that there is a unity of the early and late Heidegger often ignored by other commentators Niederhauser argues that death is the fulcrum of Heidegger's ontology and the turning point of the history of being Death resurfaces at the most crucial moments of the thinking path from beginning to end The book is of interest to those invested in current debates on the ethics of dying and the transhumanist project of digital human immortality The text also shows that for Heidegger philosophy means first and foremost to learn how to die This volume speaks to continental and analytical philosophers and students alike as it draws on a number of diverse Heidegger interpretations and appreciates intercultural differences in reading Heidegger

The Church in the Power of the Spirit Jürgen Moltmann, 1993-09-01 This book which in my opinion is Moltmann's best can be recommended on the basis that it contains challenging and creative insights that can be used by the discriminating reader in the service of church renewal Moltmann represents the theology of liberation at its best and those who wish to know more about this theology would do well to study this creative and searching theologian Donald G Bloesch Christianity Today Moltmann is perhaps unsurpassed among his contemporaries in keenness of insight and rhetorical power Daniel L Migliore Theology Today Moltmann presents a stirring vision which every Christian community could well ponder With a missionary emphasis he seeks to help the reader face the question of the church's identity in the light of the contemporary political economic and social scene Religious Education
