Kott, Olivier Wieviorka, 2025-10-01 When the Second World War ended Europe was in ruins Yet politically and socially the years between 1943 and 1947 were a time of dramatic reconfigurations which proved to be foundational for the making of today's Europe This volume hones in on the crucial period from the beginning of the end of Nazi rule in Europe to the advent of the Cold War Through a series of interrelated case studies that span the entire continent it demonstrates how the everyday experiences of Europeans during these five years shaped the transition of their societies from war to peace The authors explore these reconfigurations on different scales and levels the local and regional the ethnic and national and the international with the purpose of enhancing our understanding of how wars end Murder in the Multinational State

Stewart King, 2019-05-23 As Spaniards set out to transform the political social and cultural landscape of the nation following the death of dictator Francisco Franco in 1975 its crime fiction traces challenges and celebrates these radical changes Crime Fiction from Spain Murder in the Multinational State provides a comprehensive exploration of the relationship between detective fiction and national and cultural identities in post Franco democratic Spain What sort of stories are told about the nation within the state in the crime genre How do the conventions of the crime story shape not only the production of national and cultural identities but also their disruption Combining criminological theories of crime and community with an analysis of the genre's conventions this study challenges the simple classification of Spanish crime fiction as texts written by Spaniards set in Spain and with Spanish characters Instead it develops a dramatic new reading practice which allows for a greater understanding of the role of crime fiction in the construction and articulation of different and at times competing
