Retelling Stories, Framing Culture John Stephens,Robyn McCallum,2013-01-11 What happens to traditional stories when they are retold in another time and cultural context and for a different audience This first of its kind study discusses Bible stories classical myths heroic legends Arthurian romances Robin Hood lore folk tales oriental tales and other stories derived from European cultures One chapter is devoted to various retellings of classics from Shakespeare to Wind in the Willows The authors offer a general theory of what motivates the retelling of stories and how stories express the aspirations of a society An important function of stories is to introduce children to a cultural heritage and to transmit a body of shared allusions and experiences that expresses a society s central values and assumptions However the cultural heritage may be modified through a pervasive tendency of retellings to produce socially conservative outcomes because of ethnocentric androcentric and class based assumptions in the source stories that persist into retellings Therefore some stories such as classical myths are particularly resistant to feminist reinterpretations for example while other types such as folktales are more malleable In examining such possibilities the book evaluates the processes of interpretation apparent in retellings Index included Third World Resources ,1993 Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year alternative press index ALTERNATIVE PRESS INDEX,2002 Choice ,2001 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1999 Who's Who in the World, 1995 Marquis Who's Who,1995-12 This single volume affords instant access to more than 35 000 individual biographies of the people whose activities are shaping today s world Among those profiled are prominent government figures high ranking military officers leaders of the largest corporations in each country heads of religious organizations pioneers in
