Time Is All We Have Four Weeks At The Betty Ford Center:

Betty Ford John Robert Greene, 2004 John Robert Greene traces Betty Ford's problems and triumphs from her childhood through her husband's entire political career including his controversial presidency which thrust her into an unrelenting media spotlight. He then tells how she confronted her personal demons and became a symbol of courage for women throughout the nation. BOOK JACKET The Betty Ford Center Book of Answers James W. West, 1997-02 Answers questions about alcoholism and heredity co-dependence recovery from cocaine addiction tranquilizer abuse and factors affecting recovery. Time is All We Have Barnaby Conrad, 1986 A riveting personal account of one man's lifelong battle with alcoholism and a look inside the most famous drug and alcohol treatment center in the world. Hollywood Shot by Shot Norman K. Denzin, To what extent have Hollywood feature films shaped the meanings that Americans attach to alcoholics their families and the alcoholic condition? To what extent has the mass culture of the movie industry itself been conceptually shaped by a broad external societal discourse? Norman Denzin brings to his life-long study of alcoholism a searching interest in how cultural texts signify and lend themselves to interpretation within a social nexus. Both historical and diachronic in his approach, Denzin identifies five periods in the alcoholism films made between 1932 and the end of the 1980s and offers a detailed critical reading of thirty-seven films produced during these six decades. Professor Denzin has produced a searching and provocative interpretation of more than a half-century of Hollywood's social and personal construction of the problem drinker in America. Readable by both lay persons and specialists, Denzin's book provides us with the most comprehensive understanding of this topic to date. Stanford M. Lyman Robert J. Morrow Eminent Scholar in Social Science Florida Atlantic University An eminent sociologist and leading authority on alcoholism, Denzin also writes skillfully about films as films and is comfortable with postmodern interpretive theory, a genuinely interdisciplinary work of the first order. Robert L. Carringer author The Making of Citizen Kane Denzin has gone on an exhaustive bar crawl through hundreds of movies, returning with evidence that the film about drinking is a genre of its own. He writes from sound knowledge about alcoholism which, unlike other diseases, is frequently viewed with bittersweet romanticism. Roger Ebert Norman K. Denzin is professor of sociology, cinema studies, and interpretive theory at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. He was awarded the George Herbert Mead Award for Lifetime Achievement from the Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction. He is the author of several books including Screening Race, Hollywood and a Cinema of Racial Violence, The Recovering Alcoholic, Interpretive Ethnography, Images of Postmodernism, Social Theory and Contemporary Cinema, and Interpretive Interactionism.

But what about his wife Joan, the woman who became famous for giving away his fortune? Lisa Napoli tells the fascinating story behind the historic couple Ray Joan is a quintessentially American tale of corporate intrigue and private passion a struggling Mad Men era salesman with a vision for a fast food franchise that would become one of the world's most enduring brands and a beautiful woman willing to risk her marriage and her reputation to promote controversial causes that touched her deeply Ray Kroc was peddling franchises around the country for a fledgling hamburger stand in the 1950s McDonald's it was called when he entered a St Paul supper club and encountered a beautiful young piano player who would change his life forever The attraction between Ray and Joan was instantaneous and instantly problematic Yet even the fact that both were married to other people couldn't derail their roller coaster of a romance To the outside world Ray and Joan were happy enormously rich and giving But privately Joan was growing troubled over Ray's temper and dark secret something she was reluctant to publicly reveal Those close to them compared their relationship to that of Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton And yet this volatility paved the way for Joan's transformation into one of the greatest philanthropists of our time A force in the peace movement she produced activist films books and music and ultimately gave away billions of dollars including landmark gifts to the Salvation Army and NPR Together the two stories form a compelling portrait of the twentieth century a story of big business big love and big giving Status of Alaska Natives United States.
