Reconstruction, the Gilded Age, and Imperialism

HOW TO USE THE STUDY GUIDE

This study guide is designed to help guide your learning for this unit. Use this structure to generate and organize terms, ideas, questions, and your own key insights from each lesson.

Think of this guide as a “living document”. As you read, discover, and learn from your course materials, you should continue to add information and evidence from each lesson, and record your responses to each unit Focus Question and each lesson’s Essential Question. By the end of the unit, the work you do in this guide will become a thorough review sheet that you can use to study for the Midterm, the Final Exam, and the exam essays.

PART 1: FOCUS QUESTION AND ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS

Before you start your reading for this unit, look at the unit’s Focus Question (FQ). This question will emphasize a theme related to the unit and guide students to recognize the significance of the history being studied. Each lesson is connected to the unit’s FQ and is part of a network of connections that can be used to answer the question.

Each lesson’s Essential Question (EQ) will summarize each day’s lesson. As you read, try to identify information and evidence that can help you answer each question. When you find key passages, note the page numbers and sources, so that you can access this information easily later for studying and assessments.

FOCUS QUESTION:

After the Civil War and into the early 20th century, what social, political, and economic factors shaped the United States’ character? What themes were a continuation of opportunity or hardship, and what themes were a departure?

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS:

Directions: Review these questions before completing the reading assigned Before Class.

Lesson 1.1 In the OpenStax U.S. History assigned chapters, how did American society change and how did it stay the same after the antebellum era?
