The Director Paul Letersky, 2021-07-13. In 1965 at the beginning of the chaos, twenty-two year old Paul Letersky was assigned to assist the legendary FBI director J. Edgar Hoover who had just turned seventy and had by then led the Bureau for an incredible forty-one years. Hoover was a rare and complex man who walked confidently among the most powerful. His personal privacy was more tightly guarded than the secret files he carefully collected and that were so feared by politicians and celebrities. Through Letersky's close working relationship with Hoover and the trust and confidence he gained from Hoover's most loyal senior assistant Helen Gandy, Paul became one of the few able to enter the Director's secretive and sometimes perilous world. Since Hoover's death half a century ago, millions of words have been written about the man and hundreds of hours of TV dramas and A-list Hollywood films produced. But until now there has been virtually no account from someone who for a period of years spent hours with the Director on a daily basis. Provided by publisher.
