sociality are co-opted by political leaders in the Middle East and turned into jargon. Later chapters outline resistance to this co-option through a poetics of intersubjectivity that takes structures of feeling into account ranging from disappointment, despair, and distrust to dignity, solidarity, and reconfigured senses of the sacred. In showing how psychological and affective states relate to signifying practices, the book offers an original conceptual framework for differentiating radicalization from the creative radicalism of the Arab avant-garde.
