Notes on Trumpspace David Markus, 2023 In the wake of the 2016 U S Presidential election considerable ink was spilled on the architecture and interior design of the buildings owned and inhabited by Donald J Trump In an effort to understand the inner workings of America s first real estate mogul in chief commentators remarked on everything from the president s fastidious taste in window dressings to the exaggerated floor counts boasted by many Trump branded towers Notes on Trumpspace takes this discursive trend as a point of departure It examines not only key examples of Trumpitecture but also works of film fiction and contemporary art that center on or otherwise illuminate the psychogeography of super luxury real estate Engaging closely with current political debates the book takes a critical approach to mainstream liberal reactions to the Trump presidency It argues that the fascination and horror Trump has provoked is owing in part to the way he lays bare the obsession with status self branding and achievement at any cost that has been part and parcel of the broader neoliberal ethos Finally it analyzes the January 6 2021 storming of the US Capitol through the lens of spatio political theorizations of settler colonial power and conceptions of home and homeland A genre defying work of political and aesthetic inquiry Notes on Trumpspace is a sustained investigation into the relationship between the built environment late capitalist fantasy and national identity It asks what it means for current and future understandings of home and dwelling that this era's most notorious peddler of high end real estate succeeded in peddling his way into the White House in 2016 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, David Remnick, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 2009-12 Bon Appétit , 2009-07
