The World To Come A Novel:

The World to Come Dara Horn, 2006 Having stolen a million dollar Marc Chagall masterpiece thirty year old quiz show writer Benjamin Ziskind and his twin sister work to evade the police and evaluate the eighty year old link between their family and the famous painting

The Subject of Holocaust Fiction Emily Miller Budick, 2015-05-20 Fictional representations of horrific events run the risk of undercutting efforts to verify historical knowledge and may heighten our ability to respond intellectually and ethically to human experiences of devastation In this captivating study of the epistemological psychological and ethical issues underlying Holocaust fiction Emily Miller Budick examines the subjective experiences of fantasy projection and repression manifested in Holocaust fiction and in the reader's encounter with it Considering works by Cynthia Ozick Art Spiegelman Aharon Appelfeld Michael Chabon and others Budick investigates how the reading subject makes sense of these fictionalized presentations of memory and trauma victims and victimizers

Neo-Victorian Lesbians on Screen Sarah E. Maier, Rachel M. Friars, 2025-09-09 In Neo Victorian Lesbians on Screen Maier and Friars argue that the on screen portrayal of lesbians situated in the long nineteenth century across various countries is at the very least a dual task the imperative project of revoicing lesbian silence and female companionship is complicated by the lack of and or complex representation of such women in the past The adaptations with varying degrees of success carefully manipulate the gaze of the viewer to illustrate both how crucial the act of looking proves to be for lesbian attachment in these films and how the viewer's own gaze changes the way the lesbian is represented Maier and Friars consider the adaptations awareness of the audience and the ways in which the films implicitly acknowledge the stakes behind bringing the lesbian to life as it were in visual media Because screen adaptations disrupt historical distance by literally picturing Victorian subjects via a medium they did not have film adaptations of novels and biofictions and original screenplays are challenged by the lesbian subject's vivid presence on screen The lesbian is no longer a contained neo Victorian presence in the othered nineteenth century but her very existence on screen signals her effervescent modernity which filmmakers alternately embrace or reject

Ex(tra)territorial Didier Lassalle, Dirk Weissmann, 2014-08-01 As a judicial concept dating back to the 17th century the term ex tra territoriality has long excited the interest of scholars and writers who have since the 20th century not hesitated to appropriate the notion widening and transforming it in the process This transfer to the field of humanities has opened a new space of reflection a space for imagination through the means of a creative re reading among others which has given rise to new but related concepts such as deterritorialization To take into account the growing importance of this extraterritoriality paradigm reassessing the idea of territory in literature culture and languages this book offers an interdisciplinary and plurilingual journey through four centuries four continents and a dozen languages from literature to new media encompassing philosophy history linguistics the press the cinema Notion juridique remontant au XVIIe siècle le terme d'extra territorialité suscite depuis longtemps l'intérêt des sciences humaines et de la litt rature qui depuis le XXe siècle n'ont pas hésité à l'approprier pour l'élargir et le transformer. Ce transfert du qualificatif extra-territorial vers les humanités a ouvert un autre espace de réflexion, un espace d'imagination grâce notamment à une relecture créatrice ce qui a pu donner lieu de nouveaux concepts apparentés comme celui de déterritorialisation. Pour tenir compte de l'importance grandissante d'une pensée de l'extra-territorialité mettant en question de la notion de territoire dans les domaines littéraire, culturel et linguistique, le présent ouvrage propose un parcours interdisciplinaire et plurilingue travers quatre siècles, quatre continents et une dizaine de langues de la littérature aux nouveaux médias en passant par la philosophie, l'histoire, la linguistique, la presse, le cinéma, etc.

Holocaust Narratives Thorsten Wilhelm, 2020-06-09 Holocaust Narratives: Trauma, Memory and Identity Across Generations analyzes individual, multi-generational frameworks of Holocaust trauma to answer one essential question: How do these narratives change to not only transmit the trauma of the Holocaust and in the process add meaning to what is inherently an event that annihilates meaning but also construct the trauma as a connector to a past that needs to be continued in the present? Meaningless or not, unspeakable or not, unknowable or not, the trauma in all its impossibilities and intractabilities spawns literary and scholarly engagement on a large scale. Narrative is the key connector that structures trauma for both individual and collective.

New Directions in Jewish American and Holocaust Literatures Victoria Aarons, Holli Levitsky, 2019-02-28 What does it mean to read and to teach Jewish American and Holocaust literatures in the early decades of the twenty-first century? New directions and new forms of expression have emerged both in the invention of narratives and in the methodologies and discursive approaches taken toward these texts. The premise of this book is that despite moving farther away in time, the Holocaust continues to shape and inform contemporary Jewish American writing. Divided into analytical and pedagogical sections, the chapters present a range of possibilities for thinking about these literatures. Contributors address such genres as biography, the graphic novel, alternate history, midrash, poetry, and third-generation and hidden child Holocaust narratives. Both canonical and contemporary authors are covered, including Michael Chabon, Nathan Englander, Anne Frank, Dara Horn, Joe Kupert, Philip Roth, and William Styron.

Symbolism 12/13 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2013-12-12 Magic realism has become a significant mode of expression in Jewish cultural production. This special focus of Symbolism for the first time explores in a comparative and transnational approach the magic realist engagement of Jewish writers, artists, and filmmakers from the Diaspora and from Israel with issues of identity, oppression, and persecution as well as the Holocaust.
