Theatre and the World Rustom Bharucha, 2003-09-02 In this passionate and controversial work director and critic Rustom Bharucha presents the first major critique of intercultural theatre from a Third World perspective Bharucha questions the assumptions underlying the theatrical visions of some of the twentieth century's most prominent theatre practitioners and theorists including Antonin Artaud Jerzy Grotowski and Peter Brook He contends that Indian theatre has been grossly mythologised and taken out of context by Western directors and critics And he presents a detailed dramaturgical analysis of what he describes as an intracultural theatre project providing an alternative vision of the possibilities of true cultural pluralism Theatre and the World bravely challenges much of today's multicultural theatre movement It will be vital reading for anyone interested in the creation or discussion of a truly non Eurocentric world theatre

Theatre and the World Rustom Bharucha, 1990-01-01      Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2007-03-27 In the age of globalization we are no longer home alone Migration brings other worlds into our own just as the global reach of the media transmits our world into the hearts and minds of others Often incommensurate values are crammed together in the same public square Increasingly we all today live in the kind of edge cultures we used to see only on the frontiers of civilizations in places like Hong Kong or Istanbul The resulting frictions and fusions are shaping the soul of the coming world order I can think of no other project with the ambitious scope of defining this emergent reality than The Cultures and Globalization project I can think of no more capable minds than Raj Isar and Helmut Anheier who can pull it off Nathan Gardels Editor in Chief NPQ Global Services Los Angeles Times Syndicate Tribune Media This series represents an innovative approach to the central issues of globalization that phenomenon of such undefined contours Lupwishi Mbuyumba Director of the Observatory of Cultural Policies in Africa The world's cultures and their forms of creation presentation and preservation are deeply affected by globalization in ways that are inadequately documented and understood The Cultures and Globalization Series is designed to fill this void in our knowledge Analyzing the relationship between globalization and cultures is the aim of the Series In each volume leading experts as well as young scholars will track cultural trends connected to globalization throughout the world covering issues ranging from the role of cultural difference in politics and governance to the evolution of the cultural economy and the changing patterns of creativity and artistic expression Each volume will also include an innovative presentation of newly developed indicator suites on cultures and globalization that will be presented in a user friendly form with a high graphics content to facilitate accessibility and understanding Like so many phenomena linked to globalization conflicts over and within the cultural realms crystallize great anxieties and illusions through misplaced assumptions inadequate concepts unwarranted simplifications and instrumental readings The aim here is to marshal evidence from different disciplines and perspectives about the culture conflict and globalization relationships in conceptually sensitive ways      The Politics of Cultural Practice Rustom Bharucha, 2000-10-27 Refuting the notion that the West is everywhere Rustom Bharucha draws on the emergent cultures of secular struggle in contemporary India to engage with the volatile global issues of intellectual property rights cultural tourism and the marking of minorities on the basis of religion caste language gender and sexuality

Experimental Xiqu Performances Endure Lin Chen, 2025-08-22 This book offers a detailed comprehensive and theoretically grounded study of experimental xiqu performances that have taken place in recent decades across Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and online platforms Situating these performances within their specific socio political contexts and historical trajectories this book explores the question what defining aesthetics and methodologies characterise experimental xiqu practices and how do they distinguish themselves from traditional xiqu aesthetics and the intercultural theatre paradigm epitomised by the Western story Eastern body approach A performative theoretical framework is developed to facilitate a thorough examination of the evolution of xiqu from the last millennium to modern times with particular focus on the 20th century The primary objectives of this investigation are twofold to establish a nuanced understanding of the dynamic and non dualistic concept of traditional xiqu and to provide a vivid depiction of the diverse soils shaping various experimental xiqu performances Focusing on aesthetics this book further conducts detailed performance analyses of The Outcast General Metamorphosis Sighing and The Spirits Play Online This book contends that experimental xiqu performances reveal the deep wounds borne by a significant number of ordinary people Owing to the discourse of beauty surrounding xiqu the institutional constraints the dualistic political discourses and most of all the as yet unconstructed condition of collective cultural trauma within these contexts all the wounds are touched softly Experimental xiqu performances help endure the deep wounds and the unarticulated cultural traumas This book will be of great interest to theatre performance and opera studies scholars and students     Terror and Performance Rustom Bharucha, 2014-04-16 This work goes where other books fear to tread It reaches the parts other scholars might imagine in their dreams but would neither have the international reach nor the critical acumen and forensic flourish to deliver Alan Read King s College London This book is not only timely It is overdue and it is a masterpiece unrivalled by any book I know of Erika Fischer Lichte Freie Universit t Berlin The first and only book that focuses on the intersections of performance terror and terrorism as played out beyond a Euro American context post 9 11 It is an important work both substantively and methodologically Jenny Hughes University of Manchester A profound and tightly bound sequence of reflections a rigorously provocative book Stephen Barber Kingston University London In this exceptional investigation Rustom Bharucha considers the realities of Islamophobia the legacies of Truth and Reconciliation the deadly certitudes of State controlled security systems and the legitimacy of counter terror terrorism drawing on a vast spectrum of human cruelties across the global South The outcome is a brilliantly argued case for seeing terror as a volatile and mutant phenomenon that is deeply lived experienced and performed within the cultures of everyday life     Interlogue: Haresh Sharma, the cultural politics of playwriting in contemporary Singapore Kirpal Singh, 1998     Alternative Theater in Taiwan Iris Hsin-chun Tuan, 2007 This highly original book furnishes a creative interpretation of alternative contemporary Taiwanese Theater by applying feminism interculturalism and other Western theories to three intercultural performances of four avant garde female directors from 1993 2004 Performing Arts     Australasian Drama Studies, 2001     Negotiating Cultures Ian Watson, 2002 This work examines three major strands of the work Eugenio Barba a leading theatre artist and theorist working across cultures     Theatre and Globalization Patrick Lonergan, 2009-01-15 WINNER OF THE 2008 THEATRE BOOK PRIZE Globalization is transforming theatre everywhere As writers seek to exploit new opportunities to produce their work internationally audiences are seeing the world and the stage differently And as national borders became more fluid the barriers between economics and culture are also becoming weaker In this groundbreaking study Patrick Lonergan explores these developments placing them in the context of the transformation of Ireland the most globalized country in the world since the early 1990s Drawing on archival material that has never before been published this study sheds new light on the culture of Celtic Tiger Ireland focusing on such writers as Brian Friel Sean O Casey Marie Jones Martin McDonagh Marina Carr and Conor McPherson In doing so it shows how globalization poses difficult questions for authors and audiences and reveals how we can begin to come to terms with these new developments TDR., 2008 The Mechanics of Mimesis and the Impact of Theater Kurt Hartwig, 2002 The Performer, 2001 Research in African Literatures, 1997 Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004
